Thirty third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Blessed are you who fear the Lord
Psalm 128:1a

GET READY

The Letters of Paul to the Thessalonians are among his earliest writings, and are driven by his belief and the belief of the entire early Christian community that the return of Christ was imminent. Therefore, to devote time or attention to anything else was foolish.

As time progressed, this fervor receded a bit. Today we may wonder, when we hear these readings about the coming end-times, if we should take them to heart. What should we do when we hear that the day of the Lord will come upon us "like a thief at night"? (1 Thessalonians 5:2) Does this mean we are to stop our long-range goal-setting, get rid of our yearly calendars and planners, or stop putting money in the college education fund? Of course not. What it does mean is that we need to change our lives, living like children of the light and illuminating the world around us with the light of the gospel. Then, on that day, when the details of our daily living become unimportant, we will be ready to find our peace and security in Christ Jesus

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

All Christians in both East and West embraced the care of the sick as essential to church life. In the West, the importance of the visit of the priest is stressed, while in the East, the sick person is brought to the church for a full Liturgy of the Word. Some, such as the Armenians, even call it the "Ritual of the Lamp," since the oil is poured out of the lamp by which the Word is read. This may be why Eastern Christians sometimes anoint the sick with this oil, since the trip to church might kill them.

Our tradition in the West also unfolded in monasteries, where it was possible for infirm monks to be attended with a full and beautifully consoling liturgy. In 950 the monks of St. Alban's Abbey in Mainz produced a ceremonial book that was instantly a pastoral hit everywhere. There were two lengthy rituals for the sick, one an extended vigil, and the other a liturgy of anointing that included Communion under both species. While this ritual was a house formula for monks, it is easy to see how monks who had the care of parishes desired to serve their parishioners in a similar way. The first form included the chanting of penitential psalms, and the second form required a confession beforehand. Both forms included a laying on of hands, which everyone understood as being an essential part of penance.

LIVING PRAYER

Who prays as they ought will endeavor to live as they pray.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

New Children's Books Wanted

The Social Justice Ministry is collecting new children's books to give to families who are receiving Thanksgiving Baskets this year. If you would like to donate a book for a child in need, please leave it in the container in the main vestibule of the church. Members of the S.J.M. will give the families, who have young children, books when they pick up their food baskets during Thanksgiving week.

What about Brittany?

The media reported that 29 year old Brittany Maynard planned to commit suicide. They reported that she went through with her plan and killed herself on November 2, using a drug obtained through Oregon's so called "Death With Dignity" Act. As followers of Christ we are called to have compassion for those who are suffering physically, emotionally and spiritually. Suicide is misguided compassion. Are we playing "God" with life? Our faith tells us that life is to be respected and cared for from conception until natural death. What Brittany physically went through was terrible, but taking her life was not the answer. It was a tragedy. Let us pray for Brittany. May she be at peace. Let us keep in our prayers all who are suffering and considering suicide.

The 24/7 Suicide Prevention and Crisis Hotline telephone number is 1-800-273-8255.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

As you know the Knights of Columbus are collecting non perishable food items for the 250 Thanksgiving Food Baskets which will be distributed Thanksgiving Week. We have been informed that the agencies in the Sacramento area who usually help by providing large amounts of canned goods and other items to help us fill our baskets, are not able to help this year.

We are therefore asking you to be especially generous to help us provide these 250 families with a full Thanksgiving Basket of food. We thank you and appreciate your generosity.

If you would like to find out more about becoming a Knight please ask any Knight, they should all be wearing their name badges, or call Phil De Leon at (916) 607-1645.

CATHOLIC TV

The Catholic TV Network, America's Catholic Television, is now available to cable and satellite providers in our area. You are invited to help provide this upbeat, and exciting Catholic network, and a powerful resource to the people of our area.

To help simply visit GetCatholicTV.com as an easy way to petition your cable or satellite provider. If you are unable to access the internet please follow up with a postcard or letter to your provider.

URBAN FIRE SAFETY

Due to the potential of devastating loss due to fires The Catholic Mutual offers a few helpful suggestions:

Keep all roofs, eaves and gutters free of debris.

Remove dead vegetation from around buildings and grounds.

If you have firewood, move the stacks of wood away from the building.

Try to plant fire resistant plants & shrubs.

Trim trees and shrubs.

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

Recent Bereavement

Please keep the families and friends in your prayers for St. Paul Parishioners whose funerals, or Memorial Masses were celebrated during the past few week, James Iwamoto, Paul Keyes, Rudy Espinoza, Frances Smith Kathryn Tullos, Aurelio Navarette, Teodora Estonilo, Luciana Orta, Esther Carraso, Buddy Clegg. May they rest in peace and let perpetual light shine upon them. For more information please call Clara at 689-3932, or the rectory 381-5200.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS

ATTENTION LADIES:

Is there something missing in your life? The Catholic Daughters of the Americas is the largest Catholic women's organization in the world and the "best kept secret in the Catholic Church," quoted from Bishop Joseph Sartoris, LA. Archdiocese. Think about joining! We meet every 2nd Tuesday of the month, Sept. through June, Classroom #1 at 7:00pm. Call Nellie Basquez (916) 381-1365 .

The Catholic Daughters of Americas will be Selling tamales the weekend of November 15/16 after all Masses. We will be selling both Vegetarian and Pork Tamales.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CENTER INPUT

The St. Paul Meditation Area provides the parish with a quiet place where parishioners are able to sit, pray, meditate give thanks, or petition for those things they hold close in their hearts. The pavers in the Meditation area reflect many of those things that parishioners, who have placed them there, hold dear.

Since the first pavers were placed in August of 2013, 45 parishioners have placed pavers around the monument. The pavers provide a visual reminder of family, friends, or thankfulness of gifts that God has provided. The funds received from the pavers have gone directly to help reduce the debt incurred in the building of the Religious Education Center.

If you have not taken a moment to visit the Meditation Area you should. Stopping our hectic lives for just a few moments to thank God for all have received is very refreshing.

ALL SOULS ENVELOPES

All Souls Envelopes are available in the entranceway of the church. If you would like to have a deceased loved one remembered in the Masses, please take an envelope and return it with the names listed on the envelope. All the envelopes will remain on the altar during the month of November.

THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 27th, Mass will be at 9:00am. You are invited to bring an item from your thanksgiving feast to church to be blessed. Place the item on the steps in front of the altar and retrieve it after Mass.

HEALTH MINISTRY

It's Flu Season again! The Health Ministry reminds you each year 5% to 20% of the US population gets the flu, more than 200,000 people are hospitalized and about 3,000 die. Get a flu shot! Wash your hands frequently! Disinfect frequently used surfaces. Stay home if you are sick.

Trigesimo Tercer Domingo del tiempo Ordinario 16 de noviembre de 2014

PREPARENSE

Las cartas de Pablo a los tesalonicenses son de sus primeros escritos, y fueron motivadas por su creencia y la de toda la primera comunidad, y por eso sería una tontería dar tiempo o atención a otras cosas.

Con el pasar del tiempo, ese fervor comenzaba a disminuir un poco. Hoy día, cuando escuchamos estas lecturas sobre el fin del mundo, podemos preguntarnos si de veras creemos que Cristo va a venir entre nosotros como “un ladrón en la noche” (1 Tesalonicenses 5:2). Si la respuesta es “Sí”, debemos, o no, dejar nuestra planificación a largo plazo, deshacernos de nuestros calendarios y agendas, y suspender los ahorros para la educación universitaria de nuestros hijos? Seguro que no. Pero, lo que si quiere decir es que deberíamos cambiar nuestra vida y vivir como hijos de la luz e iluminar el mundo a nuestro alrededor con la luz de Evangelio. Entonces, en aquel día, cuando los detalles de nuestra rutina diaria ya no importen, estaremos listos para encontrar

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura— Un esposo es capaz de confiar su corazón a su esposa que es como una joya (Proverbios 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31)

Salmo— Dichosos los que temen al Señor (Salmo 128 (127))

Segunda lectura— El día del Señor vendrá como el ladrón en la noche (1 Tesalonicenses 5:1-6)

Evangelio— Porque has sido fiel en lo poco, ven a compartir la alegría de tu Señor. (Mateo 25: 14-30 (14-15, 19-21))

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Algunas cosas caen en nuestra vida y nosotros sencillamente las aceptamos. Así eran las vacaciones de verano cuando yo era niño. No había necesidad, ni ciertamente deseo, de organizarla para que fueran más efectivas. El verano era mejor cuando sencillamente se daba: montar en bicicleta, jugar algún tipo de béisbol en los terrenos de la escuela detrás de nuestra casa, nadar en uno de los parques, ir a comprar helado o nieve al anochecer, atrapar luciérnagas y un millar de otras cosas que juntas constituían el verano.

Hay otras cosas, sin embargo, que caen en nuestra vida, pero que no llevan a ninguna parte, salvo y tal vez después de bastantes agujonazos. La escuela me viene a la mente. Nunca hubiera ido a la escuela de haberseme dado la opción. Sacarme las amígdalas cae en la misma categoría, así como usar frenillos en mis dientes, mudarme a una ciudad nueva cuando tenía ocho años y la muerte de mi abuela el día que cumplí doce años. Yo lo tomaba todo con calma, pues no había otra manera de tomarlo. Aunque si me hubiesen dado a elegir, nada de eso hubiera sucedido jamás. Sencillamente pasé por todo eso y después todo pasó.

VIVAMOS LA PALABRA DE DIOS

En la primera carta a la comunidad tesalonicense san Pablo le dice que “el día del Señor vendrá como un ladrón en plena noche” (1 Tesalonicenses 5:2). Dios vendrá a robarse la vida tal como ahora la conocemos. Sin embargo, si en ese momento tomamos la vida tal como llega, tal vez algo nuevo pudiera nacer en nosotros.

DIAS ESPECIALES ESTA SEMANA

Tengo siempre presente al Señor: con él a mi derecha, no vacilaré. Si algo me pide Jesús, es que me apoye en él, que confié solo en él, que me abandone a él sin reservas. No debemos intentar controlar las acciones de Dios. No debemos contar las etapas del viaje por las que nos quiere llevar. Incluso si me siento como un barco a la deriva, me entrego totalmente a él. Cuando esto parece difícil, acuérdate de que no estamos llamados a tener éxito, pero si a ser fieles. La fidelidad es importante, incluso en las pequeñas cosas, no por la cosa en si, que sería de un espíritu mezquino; la grandeza esta en hacer a voluntad de Dios. San Agustín dijo: “La pequeñas cosas siguen siendo pequeñas, pero ser fiel en la pequeñas cosas es una gran cosa. ¿Acaso Nuestro Señor no es el mismo con un pequeño que con un poderoso?”

TE GUSTARIA TENER UN RECURDO

Placita de meditación alrededor de la estatua de San Pablo".

Este lugar se dedico para dejar un recuerdo del nombre de persona o personas que quieren que se les recuerde como un recuerdo de haber participado en la construcción de la Educación Religiosa de San Pablo.

¿Le gustaría tener el recuerdo de un ser querido para siempre como un memorial en la zona de meditación?

¿Quieres ayudar a pagar nuestro préstamo Diocesano y también será recordado o recordar a un ser querido?

Puedes dejar una parte de su corazón en el área de meditación, puede ver los adobes con los nombres de las personas que ya escogieron su lugar.

Si usted está interesado por favor recoja un folleto informativo en el estante para libros en el vestíbulo de la iglesia, o llame a la oficina de la Iglesia. (916) 381-5200

SEGUNDA COLECTA

. Noviembre 22/23: Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano.

En los Estados Unidos, 37 millones de estadounidenses luchan en la pobreza, muchos a pesar de trabajar tiempo completo no logra vencer sus problemas de pobreza. La Campaña Católica para el Desarrollo Humano se ha comprometido a ayudar a la gente a crear soluciones permanentes al problema de la pobreza en la comunidad. Usted puede ayudar a romper el ciclo de la pobreza.
