THANKSGIVING

One act of thanksgiving, when things go wrong with us, is worth a thousand thanks when things are agreeable to our inclinations. Saint John of Avila.

I was thirsty and you gave me drink."

THE LORD'S FLOCK

Sheep are high-maintenance animals. They are not very intelligent. Without guidance and care, especially in a climate like Israel's, they would die quickly from predators, starvation, or just their own slowness. The scriptural image of us as the Lord's flock is not terribly flattering to us, since it is only the never-ending diligence of a watchful shepherd that allows the flock to survive.

The feast of Christ the King was intended to call the world back to Christ as the sole power of the world, to bring back a flock that had been scattered by many negative forces of the growing industrial, scientific, and war-torn world of the early twentieth century. It is fitting that, as we celebrate Christ the King, we hear about Christ the Shepherd who cares for us and who, likewise, will be there at the end of time. Interestingly enough, as the Gospel illustrates, our own destiny is determined by the way we have been "shepherds" to the rest of the flock.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Coming to the end of the Church year, we can wonder how we got "extreme unction" out of "anointing of the sick." "Extreme" comes from a Latin phrase, in extremis, which in English refers to the last struggle of a dying person. "Last rites" is a phrase in common usage, and refers to the fact that years ago everyone waited until the last crisis of illness to summon the priest. The goal of anointing had always been healing and forgiveness, but in time it began to be seen as a preparation for death. In a hard world, almost anything from a hangnail to a sneeze could be life-threatening, so perhaps the change was inevitable. The emphasis on the penitential aspects was heightened, even to the odd practice of Rome in the twelfth century, when the sick person was sprinkled with ashes mixed with holy water and given a hair shirt as a sign of penance.

The reformers thankfully overlooked some of these oddities of history, and today the sacrament of the sick is much more generously applied to persons in a wide range of situations. Still, it is a sacrament of reconciliation, and for that reason is not celebrated for an infant or toddler, although there is a rite for a visit to a sick child not including anointing or Communion.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Thanksgiving Day—November 27

Mass will be at 9:00am. You are invited to attend and bring an item from your Thanksgiving dinner to be blessed during the Mass.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

New Children's Books Wanted

The Social Justice Ministry is collecting new children's books to give to families who are receiving Thanksgiving Baskets this year. If you would like to donate a book for a child in need, please leave it in the container in the main vestibule of the church. Members of the S.J.M. will give the families, who have young children, books when they pick up their food baskets during Thanksgiving week.

What about Brittany?

The media reported that 29 year old Brittany Maynard planned to commit suicide. They reported that she went through with her plan and killed herself on November 2, using a drug obtained through Oregon's so called "Death With Dignity" Act. As followers of Christ we are called to have compassion for those who are suffering physically, emotionally and spiritually. Suicide is misguided compassion. Are we playing "God" with life? Our faith tells us that life is to be respected and cared for from conception until natural death. What Brittany physically went through was terrible, but taking her life was not the answer. It was a tragedy. Let us pray for Brittany. May she be at peace. Let us keep in our prayers all who are suffering and considering suicide.

The 24/7 Suicide Prevention and Crisis Hotline telephone number is 1-800-273-8255.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The Knights would like to thank all who gave non-perishable food so generously to the Thanksgiving Food Baskets this year. Because of you we are able to help 250 families celebrate Thanksgiving.

This weekend we are collecting turkeys before and after all the masses. If you forgot to bring your turkey we will be accepting turkeys at the Parish Hall between 4:00 and 6:00pm this Sunday evening. If you would like to help fill the boxes with food items please come by the Parish Hall at 4:00 pm Monday evening, November 24th.

Mark your calendars now for the Knights Crab Feed. The date this year is Saturday, February 14th. Make this Valentine's Day a memorable one by bringing your sweetheart to the best crab feed in Sacramento. Watch the Parish bulletin to see when tickets go on sale and get them early. Last year's Crab Feed was a complete sell out!

If you would like to find out more about becoming a Knight please ask any Knight, they should all be wearing their name badges, or call Phil De Leon at (916) 607-1645

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

Bishop Soto invites all parishioners to view the 2014 Annual Catholic Appeal "Report of Gratitude" by visiting www.tcfsc.org. "Every time a family has a breakthrough, a child finds safety and hope, a marginalized individual finds the strength to rebuild a life of dignity, a seminarian moves closer to ordination, or a student is able to stay in Catholic School, we think of you, our donors. Thank you for your support this year. Please take a moment to see the difference you've made in 2014."

The 2014 Appeal is approaching $3 from nearly 19,000 Catholics in our diocese. The Appeal Office is still accepting donations for 2014. Please donate online by visiting www.tcfsc.org. 25% comes back to the parish for our own outreach to people who need our help.

Every Sunday morning the Hall becomes a gathering place for the Parish. On the first Sunday of the month a full breakfast is served. On the remaining Sundays coffee and donuts are available. These parish family building activities are sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, Chapter 6922. The Knights are up early to prepare and serve the breakfast, and to serve the donuts. Not many think to thank the Knights for this service. The meals and donuts are always great. The discussions and comradery in the hall are always interesting. In addition to the parish family building that the Knights accomplish, they also donate the proceeds of their Sunday morning service towards the repayment of the Parish debt for the construction of the Religious Education Center.

Thank you Knights of Columbus, Chapter 6922!

Nuestro Señor Jesucristo, Rey del Universo

23 de noviembre de 2014

EL REBAÑO DE JESUS

Las ovejas son animales que necesitan mucha atención. No son muy inteligentes. Especialmente en un clima como el de Israel, morirían rápidamente a causa de predadores, hambre o por su lentitud. La imagen bíblica de nosotros como el rebaño del Señor no es halagadora porque solamente con la vigilancia constante del pastor cuidadoso el rebaño puede sobrevivir.

La institución de la fiesta de Cristo Rey fue motivada por la intención de llevar el mundo a Cristo como el único poder de este mundo; y también de hacer volver el rebaño dispersado por las tantas fuerzas negativas del creciente mundo industrial y científico, desgarrado por la guerra, del siglo veinte. Mientras celebramos a Cristo Rey, es muy apropiado entender que el Cristo Pastor nos cuida ahora y va a estar presente en el momento de la separación de buenos y malos en el juicio final. Como el Evangelio ilustra bien, nuestro propio destino está determinado por nuestro servicio como pastores al resto del rebaño.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — El pastor-rey busca a los perdidos y sana a los heridos (Ezequiel 34:11-12, 15-17).

Salmo — El Señor es mi pastor, nada me falta (Salmo 23 [22]).

Segunda lectura — Cristo nuestro rey ha conquistado la muerte (1 Corintios 15:20-26, 28).

Evangelio — El Hijo del Hombre se sentará en su glorioso trono y los separará unos de otros (Mateo 25:31-46).

Antífona de Entrada: Digno es el cordero degollado de recibir el poder, la riqueza, la sabiduría, la fuerza y el honor. A él la gloria y el honor. A él la Gloria y el poder, por lo siglos de los siglos, amen. (Ap 5, 12; 1 6).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El 23 de noviembre de 1927, un pelotón de soldados conducía al jesuita mexicano Miguel Agustín Pro Juárez al paredón de fusilamiento. Uno de ellos le susurraba "perdóneme". Miguel le respondió que no sólo lo perdonaba, sino que le daba las gracias por darle la oportunidad de dar testimonio de su fe derramando su sangre por Cristo. Días antes había sido arrestado y acusado de intento de asesinato contra el presidente mexicano Álvaro Obregón. En realidad su delito era el de bautizar niños, bendecir matrimonios, llevar la comunión a los enfermos y escuchar la confesión de los arrepentidos.

Miguelito nació en 1891 y entró al noviciado jesuita en 1914, al mismo tiempo que el gobierno mexicano comenzaba una persecución en contra de la Iglesia. Debido a esta situación, Miguel tuvo que hacer su formación religiosa fuera de México. Apenas pudo, regresó a su nación como sacerdote e hizo su pastoral a escondidas, sabiendo muy bien que podía ser martirizado.

Miguel decía a sus amigos que al morir iría al cielo y si se encontraba con santos resecos, bailarían un jarabe tapatío hasta hacerles sonreír para Cristo Rey.

VIVAMOS LA PALABRA DE DIOS

Heredad el Reino preparado para vosotros antes de la creación del mundo

Cristo devolverá el reino a su Padre, dice San Pablo, no en el sentido de que renunciará a su poder al entregarle su reino, sino que seremos nosotros el reino de Dios, cuando seamos conformes a su gloria; será a nosotros a quien nos devuelva a Dios, después de habernos constituido en reino de Dios para glorificación de su cuerpo. Los justos brillarán como el sol en el reino de su Padre porque el Hijo entregará a Dios, como su reino, a aquellos que han sido invitados, a aquellos a quienes se les ha prometido la bienaventuranza propia de este misterio con estas palabras. Bienaventurados los limpios de corazón, porque ellos verán a Dios.

El Señor mismo declaró a sus Apóstoles en que consiste dicho reino: El reino de Dios está dentro de vosotros. Y si alguno desea saber quién es el que entrega el reino, que escuche: Cristo ha resucitado entre los muertos, y es primicia de los que han muerto. Si por un hombre vino la muerte, por un hombre vino la resurrección. Todo esto se refiere al misterio de su Cuerpo, Ya que Cristo es el primer resucitado de entre de los muertos. Por consiguiente, todo esto es para el progreso de la humanidad asumida por Cristo, ya que Dios lo será todo en todos.

San Hilario

Nació en Poitiers, ciudad donde fue Obispo. Por luchar contra la herejía arriana sufrió el destierro, es doctor de la Iglesia.

Sus institutos enfrentan retos económicos críticos como el costo de la atención de salud aumenta, y como la necesidad de acceso para discapacitados y aumentos de vivienda.
