NOT WITHOUT LOVE

The soul cannot live without love.

—St. Francis de Sales

January 25 2015

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time
The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent and believe in the gospel.
 - Mark 1:15

CHANGE OUR LIVES

In today's first reading, Jonah, sent by God to warn the people, storms through Nineveh, frightening the citizens out of their wits. It works! They repent before Jonah makes his way through a third of the city, and God sees "by their actions" how they have turned from evil.

Then we hear Paul telling the Corinthians that "the world in its present form is passing away." He calls for a change of heart. He stops short of telling them to set aside their everyday lives, but still he urges them—rather mysteriously—to live as though they aren't doing the things they're doing.

Finally, Jesus stands on the shore and cries, "The kingdom of God is at hand!" The apostles-to-be abandon their nets and follow him. Thus in all the readings we hear an invitation to a radical and immediate change in our lives.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As a result of the reforms of the Second Vatican Council, the Church has defined a new pastoral plan for your care whenever you struggle with illness. There are rites for children, a communal rite for celebration in the parish, forms of care for the sick at each stage and transition, and for the desperately ill. There is a much broader interpretation of who may be anointed, including not only the visibly ill, but those battling addiction, or the elderly coping with the frustrating aches and pains of aging. Children under seven are normally not anointed, since the oil is associated with reconciliation. (For the same reason, they do not receive ashes on Ash Wednesday.) However, children close to that age who have a serious illness often gain a deep level of spiritual insight and maturity, and may benefit from catechesis for the Eucharist. Once admitted to confirmation and/or Eucharist, a sick child should be anointed. It is a great strength of our present rite that a section is included with prayers tailored to the experience and understanding of a child. Considering our recent history of being fairly sparing with this sacrament, the generosity of celebration today is helping us to retrieve an essential part of our tradition of reverence for the sick.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Gun Violence

- ◆ Gun violence is responsible for approximately 31,000 death per year in the USA. Abortion kills 1.6 million babies every year.
- ◆ More Americans have been killed by abortion than by all U.S. wars combined.
- ◆ A 15 year old girl can't drive, can't drink, can't vote, but can get an abortion without her parent's consent.
- ◆ A human embryo has a heartbeat 21 days from conception. Abortion stops a beating heart. It kills a human, unborn child.
- ◆ Planned Parenthood, the largest abortion business, receives over $500 million dollars per year from our tax money.

Washington D.C. March for Life

Over 500,000 people joined the March for Life in Washington D.C. on January 22nd, 2015. Killing unborn children is wrong. Legality does not equal morality. Slavery was wrong, even when it was legal. Abortion is wrong, even though it is legal.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

PASTORAL COUNCIL

JULY THRU DECEMBER 2014

Pastoral Council met Nov. 17, 2014, and welcomed new members, Ja'net Blea, Theresa Nartey and Phil De Leon. Thank you for accepting Fr. Joyle's invitation to serve on the Pastoral Council.

Fr. Joyle had a meeting with the Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist to explain the changes in the distribution of Holy Communion. These changes come into effect December 1, 2014. Fr. Joyle also will reiterate to the parishioners the correct way to receive the Body and Blood of Christ.

Fr. Joyle reported the Day of Remembrance was well attended.

St. Paul Feast Day is January 17th. Beth Velasco is chairing this event.

Sister Kathy has been hired as our Part-time Youth Minister. New youth leaders were recruited and eager to start the New Year with Youth Day on January 1 2015.

Paul Pham suggested a Certificate of Appreciation be given to council members who have recently served and "retired" from the Council.

HEALTH MINISTRY

In an effort to provide more prompt service at the free monthly Blood Pressure Screening Clinics, the Health Ministry invites parishioners with medical/clinical training and experience to help perform blood pressure screening on the first Sundays of the month. You need not commit to full membership in the Health Ministry, nor to a specific schedule. If you are a current EMT, military medic, doctor, dentist, pharmacist, or clinical medical assistant, or other health care provider, trained and experienced in taking blood pressures, please drop by any scheduled Blood Pressure Screening Clinic and offer your services for an hour or two. Recent clinics have resulted in long waiting lines. Your assistance will be greatly appreciated.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CENTER INPUT

In 2004 the number of our parishioners had increased so much that parking was becoming a problem. The Parish decided that to accommodate the need the parking lot needed to be expanded. The expansion was initiated and completed in 2005. Subsequently the Diocese decided to create a new parish in our area, resulting in the creation of Maria Goretti Parish. Many of our parishioners found that the new parish was closer to their homes and more convenient to attend. This was the intent of the Diocese. The new parish reduced the overcrowding both for our parish and St. Joseph Parish in Elk Grove.

The benefit to our parish was that our new parking lot has created sufficient parking for future growth. Our parking lots have not yet been filled to capacity, however when our CFF Religious Education classes are in session the parking lots have many more cars. The drop off in use of the parking lots, and church attendance is attributed to the families of students being on vacation when classes are not being held?

Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 25 de enero de 2015

CAMBIEMOS NUESTRAS VIDAS

En la primera lectura de hoy, Jonás, enviado por Dios a dar advertencia al pueblo, atraviesa Nínive como un huracán, asustando grandemente a los ciudadanos. ¡Y funcionó! Ellos se arrepienten antes de que Jonás cruzara menos de la tercera parte de la ciudad, y Dios ve “por sus obras” que se han arrepentido del mal.

Luego oímos a Pablo que le dice a los corintios que “este mundo que vemos es pasajero”. El les hace un llamado al cambio de corazón. Aunque no llega a decirles que cambien su vida cotidiana, sí les insta -un tanto misteriosamente- a vivir como si no hicieran lo que hacen de costumbre.

Finalmente, Jesús se detiene a la orilla del lago y grita, “¡El reino de Dios ya está cerca!” Los futuros apóstoles abandonan sus redes y le siguen. Así es que en todas las lecturas oímos una invitación a un cambio inmediato y radical de nuestras vidas.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Con los avisos de Jonás los ninivitas se arrepienten de su maldad y Dios no los castiga (Jonás 3:1-5, 10).

Salmo — Descúbrenos, Señor tus caminos (Salmo 25 [24]).

Segunda lectura — El mundo que conocemos está pasando (1 Corintios 7:29-31).

Evangelio — El reino de Dios ha llegado. Tomen otro camino y crean en la Buena Nueva (Marcos 1:14-20).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En los años 70 y 80, Cesáreo Gabaráin compuso un sinnúmero de cantos bellísimos, para, mediante ellos, glorificar a Dios e instruir a los fieles. Entre sus cantos más famosos se encuentra “Pescador de hombres” (1979). Mezclando el llamado de los primeros discípulos, Gabaráin nos enseña en sus versos, que todos los cristianos somos llamados no sólo a seguir a Jesús, sino también a ser pescadores de personas para Cristo.

El famoso llamado de Pedro, Santiago, Juan y Andrés (Marcos 1:16-19; Mateo 4:18-22) se complementa con la pesca milagrosa (Lucas 5:1-11). Los discípulos escuchan la voz del maestro y abandonan todo para seguirlo. Al poco tiempo se encuentran pescando de nuevo, pero sin éxito. Otra vez aparece Jesús y les indica dónde echar las redes. Seguramente pensarían: “Y este carpintero, ¡qué sabe del oficio de pescar!” Pero echaron las redes, tal vez para comprobar que no había peces, o tal vez porque deseaban creer. Aún así, Jesús les llenó las redes, y de nuevo les llamó a la pesca de seres humanos para el Reino de su Padre. Y ellos dejaron todo a la orilla para seguirlo.

LA PEQUEÑA SEMILLA

No has visto alguna vez, en una senda abandonada pero acariciada por la primavera, cómo despunta la hierbecilla y vuelve a florecer sin descanso la vida? Lo mismo le sucede a la humanidad a tu alrededor si dejas de mirarla con ojos de esta tierra y la reconfortas con el rayo divino de la caridad. El amor sobrenatural en tu espíritu es un sol que no admite tregua en el florecer de la vida. Es una vida que hace de piedra angular en tu pequeña vida. No hace falta nada más para elevar el mundo, para llevarlo de nuevo a Dios. El habla elegante, la finura del trato, el fulgor del arte, el peso de la cultura y la experiencia de años son dotes que ciertamente no hay que descuidar. Pero para el reino eterno vale lo que tiene más vida. Es buena y fragante, sabrosa y vivaz una manzana cortada en trozos; pero se se entierra, muere y no queda ni rastro. En cambio, la pequeña semilla, que no agrada al paladar por insípida e insulsa, si se entierra, produce mas manzanas. Así es la vida en Dios, la vida del cristiano, el camino incandescente de la Iglesia. Alta y solemne, descansa sobre columnas que los siglos llamaron insensatas, necias y dementes; sobre las que se lanzo la furia del príncipe del mundo para destruir hasta el último vástago. Pero perduraron. El Padre las podó para que, unidas a la vid, dieran abundantes frutos; y las exaltó, gloriosas, en el reino de la vida. Tu y yo, el lechero, el campesino, el portero, el pescador, el obrero, el vendedor de periódicos, ... Y todos los demás, idealistas desencantados, madres abrumadas, enamorados a punto de casarse, ancianos consumidos esperando la muerte todos, son materia prima de la sociedad de Dios basta de que haya en ellos un corazón apuntado a Dios, la llama del amor.
