The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ
The cup of salvation I will take up, and I will call upon the name of the Lord.-Psalm 116:13

THANKSGIVING

The word “thanksgiving” most often calls to our mind the holiday in November. But as early as the middle of the second century Justin Martyr referred to the blessed bread and wine of the Lord’s Supper as “food we call ‘thanksgiving’ ” (in Greek eucharistia). The Thanksgiving we celebrate in the autumn is at times marked by a sort of proud societal self-congratulation and the consumption of food until we sink into an inert stupor. The “thanksgiving” that we call our Eucharist is just the opposite: we are led to it by an acknowledgment of our own failings; we remember our humble place in the scheme of things by giving praise to God alone.

While the food of Christ’s body and blood fills our spiritual hungers, it also creates in us a greater hunger. We are not sent to our spiritual sofas to let the Lord’s Supper settle; we are sent to be living signs of that thanksgiving for the world by looking out for the poor and powerless, feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, speaking out against the self-righteous. In short, the hunger created by our doing in remembrance of Christ must lead us to living in remembrance of him.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

It has been said that the Church breathes with two lungs, East and West. Some of our family treasures are in the East, and it is interesting to consider how liturgical families developed around differing customs. Centuries before Christ, after the young girl was given to her husband by her father, the spouses were crowned. Christians retained that custom, keeping the wedding in the home, and sometimes inviting a visiting priest or bishop to put the crowns on their heads. By the fourth century, the crowns were seen not as royal crowns, but as the crowns of victory worn by martyrs. The crowns have nothing to do with being “king and queen for a day,” but rather speak of the sacrifice of love poured out fully. There are no vows exchanged at all, but the crowning is followed by a joyful dance by the priest and couple around the Gospel book. Unlike Roman law, which saw the wedding rites as optional, Eastern practice did not recognize a marriage that had not been blessed.

OUR SACRIFICE

Let us offer Christ the great universal sacrifice of our love. For he offered his cross to God as sacrifice in order to make us all rich.

—St. Ephrem

PARISH STEWARDSHIP

PASTORAL COUNCIL

The Pastoral Council met May 22, 2015. The meeting was a combined meeting with the Pastoral Council and the Finance Council to discuss the 2015/1016 proposed budget.

The meeting opened with a prayer. The 2016 proposed budget reflects a significant trend in the reduction of offertory income, as well as a six-year trend of a marked decrease in the parish's net income.

As this is an unhealthy position the Finance council asked that the 2016 Fiscal Year include additional fund raising opportunities, as well as a decrease in unbudgeted expenditures.

Fund raisers proposed were a Luau, a Mexican dinner, sponsored by the Hispanic community, and some type of New Year's Eve fund raising function.

More encouragement for the community to use the SHARE cards at local grocery stores issued by SAVEMART. This is no cost to the user but a percentage comes back to the parish.

Discussion followed about the use of missalettes for the church, OCP the current provider has stopped publishing the ones we now used and have gone to a larger form.

Father Joyle proposed a sponsorship program for liturgical and office needs.

Other fund raising ideas were discussed. Fr. Joyle will be celebrating 25 years as a priest next year and hopes a fundraiser can be arranged.

June 27/28 representative from the California Catholic Conference will be at all Masses to enroll our parishioners as members. This is the official public policy voice of the catholic Church in California.

Meeting concluded with a prayer.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

June: Torture Awareness Month

Every June, the National Religious Campaign Against Torture brings our attention to the issues of torture. Our Catholic Church reminds us that torture is never justified under any circumstances. Torture violates the basic dignity of the human person, and it is morally wrong. As true followers of Jesus, we are called to compassion—to care not only when people are hurt or degraded—but to stand with those who are abused and oppressed. Be informed: torture is wrong. See the information in the main vestibule of the church regarding torture.

Water Collection for the Homeless

The Social Justice Ministry is collecting bottled water for the homeless during the summer months. The women and men, who call the streets “their home” are grateful for the water. There are containers in the entryways of the church for your donations. If you would prefer to give a monetary donation to purchase some bottled water, please put it in an envelope marked “Water for SJM.” Please put your envelope in the collection basket at Mass, or bring it to the parish office. Your kindness is appreciated. Questions? Contact Ja’net at 284-2008 or Lorraine at 363-3065.

Bake Sale, June 28

Members of the Social Justice Ministry will have a bake sale on Sunday, June 28 after the Masses. Proceeds from the sale will go to purchase school shoes for children in need in our area. We hope you will buy some of the items. If you would also like to donate an item for us to sell, please bring it before Mass on June 28 to our table. RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CENTER

The St. Paul Meditation area provides a place where we can remember our deceased loved ones; give thanks for all we have received, or recognize someone who is special to us. Sitting in the Meditation Area, where everything around you is quiet, provides a very spiritual experience. It allows you to silently pray, meditate, give thanks, or just bring back memories of those memorialized in the pavers in the meditation area.

It's hard to leave behind the hustle and bustle of our daily lives. If you just take a few minutes to sit, listen to the water fall, and relax, you will understand why Parishioners have had pavers installed that recognize the gifts they have received from God.

If you are interested in placing a paver in the Meditation Area, contact the office for a form to fill out. Even if you are not particularly interested in placing a paver, stop by to relieve some of your daily stress, and say a prayer of thanks for all you have received.

El Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo

7 de junio 2015

ACCION DE GRACIAS

El Día de Acción de Gracias que celebramos en el otoño a veces se ve marcado por una especie de orgullo y autofelicitación por parte de nuestra sociedad, por no hablar de comilonas que nos llevan hasta el estupor. Pero la “acción de gracias” que en griego se llama “Eucaristía” es al revés: lo que nos lleva a ella es el reconocimiento de nuestras faltas; recordamos nuestra posición humilde en el universo alabando a Dios, y a nadie más que a Dios.

Es verdad que el alimento del Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo sacia el hambre de nuestro espíritu, pero también es verdad que ese alimento crea en nosotros un hambre más intensa aun. Al terminar la Misa no nos envían a un sofá espiritual a sentarnos en lo que la Cena del Señor se nos asienta en el estómago; más bien, nos envían al mundo a ser signos vivientes de esa Acción de Gracias, ayudando a los pobres y desvalidos, alimentando a los hambrientos, cuidando a los enfermos, protestando contra las actitudes farisaicas. En fin, el hambre producida en nosotros al hacer el Memorial de Jesús nos tiene que impulsar a vivir “en memoria de él”.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — El Señor hace una alianza con su pueblo y la sella con sangre (Exodo 24:3-8).

Salmo — Levantaré el cáliz de la salvación (Salmo 116 [115]).

Segunda lectura — La sangre de Cristo obtiene la redención eterna para el pueblo (Hebreos 9:11-15).

Evangelio — Jesús, mientras celebraba la Pascua con sus discípulos, establece la nueva Alianza. (Marcos 14:12-16, 22-26).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

“Altísimo Señor”, un bellissimo himno tradicional canta con asombro y maravilla la humildad de Jesucristo quien siendo divino no sólo murió por nosotros sino que también se hace nuestro manjar en un pedacito de pan. Nos invita al “convite de amor” para “amar y recibir a quien por mí, quiso morir”.

Esta espiritualidad eucarística es buena, pero sería aún mejor recordar que el cordero divino no murió sólo por mí, sino por “nosotros”. El cristiano es cristiano en la medida que se relaciona en la Iglesia, la gran familia de Dios. El Cuerpo de Cristo se forma no sólo de granos de trigo sino de hombres y mujeres bautizadas. Su cuerpo no se encuentra sólo en un altar sino en los cristianos unidos para la misa. El cuerpo de Cristo está en la hostia pero también se encuentra en todo creyente. Abre los ojos y, con asombro y maravilla, verás a Jesucristo en nuestra unión de fe. Jesús está tan presente en la Iglesia como en sus tabernáculos y sagrarios. Juntos somos el pan de la vida que da gracia y virtud, alegría y salud.

DIA POR DIA

Esta es mi sangre, derramada por vosotros:

El pan que partimos, ¿No es la comunión con el cuerpo del Cristo? ¿Qué es este pan? El cuerpo de Cristo. ¿En que se convierten los que comulgan? En el cuerpo de Cristo: no una multitud de cuerpos, sino un único cuerpo. Los mismo que el pan, compuesto de muchos granos de trigo, es un solo pan donde los granos desaparecen, y los mismo que los granos subsisten allí pero es imposible distinguirlos en la masa tan bien unida, así nosotros todos, unidos, con Cristo, no somos más que uno. Ahora bien, si todos nosotros participamos del mismo pan y si todos estamos unidos entre nosotros con Cristo, ¿por qué no mostramos el mismo amor? ¿Por qué no nos hacemos uno en esto también?

Así era al principio: La multitud de los creyentes tenían un solo corazón y una sola alma. Cristo vino a buscarte, tú que estabas lejos de él, para unirse a ti; y tú ¿no quieres ser uno con tu hermano? !Te separas violentamente de él, después de haber obtenido del Señor una gran prueba de amor y la vida! En efecto, no sólo dio su cuerpo, sino que como nuestra carne, arrastrada por tierra, había perdido la vida y había muerto por el pecado, introdujo en ella otra sustancia, un fermento su propia carne, de la misma naturaleza que la nuestra pero exenta de pecado y llena de vida. Y nos la dio a todos, con el fin de que, alimentados en este banquete con esta nueva carne, pudiéramos entrar en la vida inmortal.

¡Ofrezcamos este Sacrificio de Acción de Gracias cada día!
