*You shall love the LORD, your God,
with all your heart, and with all your soul,
and with all your strength..
Deuteronomy 6:5*

GOD'S LAWS

God's laws are not intended to burden or torment us. Instead they are guideposts that point us in the direction of good living. Accordingly, good living requires loving God and loving one another. We should not follow God's laws out of fear of what might happen if we don't, but rather view them as a foundation for building relationships and trust with one another and with God.

The Shema prayer of Orthodox Jews is based on the reading from Deuteronomy today, "Hear, O Israel." Every morning people recite the prayer as a profession of their love for God and pledge their obedience to God throughout the day. They pass on their love of God to their children, from one generation to the next.

TREASURES OF OUR TRADITIONS

Just two years ago, we engaged in one of the core activities of our democratic system: a presidential election. Actually, the institution of election can be traced to traditions in the Church, and although bishops are no longer chosen in this way, abbots and abbesses (heads of monastic communities) have almost always been elected by full voting members of their communities.

The lifetime appointment begins when the monks or nuns are gathered in "chapter" at the death or resignation of the abbot, and fortunately for all involved, campaigning is not allowed! The members of the community discern, with prayer to the Holy Spirit, who among them is the best suited for leadership. Once chosen, the new leader requests the blessing of the local bishop, who usually presides at a ceremony of consecration or investiture. The ballots are always secret, and a simple majority must be achieved.

In our American system the Electoral College is the determining voice in the presidential election, not the popular election on a November Tuesday, just as the monastic chapter is the electorate. Today, most religious orders elect general superiors in "chapter" by delegates of the professed members, and usually for a term of six years. A few, like the Jesuits, elect for life. At least we don't have that weight on our shoulders when we choose a president. Four years at a time will do!

PRAY FOR THE DEAD

Let us not hesitate to help those who have died and offer our prayers for them.

—St. John Chrysostom

WHAT IS BEING A KNIGHT ABOUT?

What is Being Knight of Columbus All About?

The Knights of Columbus, founded by Fr. Michael J. McGivney in 1882 in an effort to aid families suffering the loss of their sole support breadwinner, is the world's largest Catholic fraternal service organization. Our Founding Principles are Charity, United, Fraternity, and Patriotism.

This is who we are if you were to look us up on the internet. But I'd like to take this opportunity to share with you a more personal description of what being a Knight is all about. I was born Catholic, went to church every Sunday and completed my Sacraments, thinking this is all I needed to do in order to be a "Good Catholic". It wasn't until I got married and lost my first wife to cancer that I learned what it really meant to be Catholic. When my wife died, I had two young children ages 2 and 5 that I had to raise on my own. Needless to say, the experience left me lost and confused. I got more involved in the church thinking I could find something to replace what was lost. I became a Lector and found some solace in proclaiming the Word of God.

But one day, another Lector came to me and asked if I had ever thought about being a Knight of Columbus, as he could sense I was missing "something". I agreed and proceeded to go through our membership ceremony during which I was overtaken by the words I heard. I discovered that by being a Knight I actually became a better Catholic because I acted to aid and support those around me. That was 20+ years ago.

. We put action into our faith by supporting not only our Church, but our Communities. We don't do it to be recognized. We do it because it is what's needed and what is right as a true Catholic gentleman. You will find Knights everywhere; whether it's in our Parish Council or any number of our Parish Ministries. But we're more than that. We aid our communities as well. Last week, you saw Knights collecting donations for individuals with intellectual disabilities. This month we'll be providing Thanksgiving Baskets for 200 families. We support our Veterans, our priests, our seminarians. We support life in all its stages. We provide scholarships for our youth to go to college. And much more!

I encourage all men, aged 18 and older to get involved. You will find it rewarding in so many ways. Please reach out to any of our Knights to find out how you can become a better Catholic by becoming a Knight. Please stop by our information table outside to find out more or contact our Membership Chairman, David Rangel at (760) 985-5374 or drangel@verizon.net if you have questions.

Thank you and God bless you. David Rangel

LAS LEYES DE DIOS

Las leyes de Dios no intentan atormentarnos o ser una carga. Al contrario, son señales que nos guían por el sendero de la buena vida. Por lo tanto, la buena vida requiere que amemos a Dios y nos amemos unos a otros. No debemos seguir las leyes divinas por miedo a lo que pudiera ocurrir si no las seguimos, más bien verlas como un fundamento sobre el cual construir nuestras relaciones y entablar confianza con los demás y con Dios.

La oración Shema de los judíos ortodoxos se basa en la lectura de hoy del Deuteronomio: "Escucha, pues, Israel". Cada mañana la persona recita la oración como una profesión de amor a Dios y un compromiso de obediencia a Dios a lo largo del día. Así transmiten el amor a Dios a sus hijos, de generación en generación.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Guarden los mandamientos y normas del Señor. Ama al Señor, tu Dios, con todo tu ser (Deuteronomio 6:2-6).

Salmo — Yo te amo, Señor, tú eres mi fortaleza (Psalm 18 [17]).

Segunda lectura — Jesús permanece para la eternidad y no cesará de ser sacerdote. Él se ofreció una vez por todas por los pecados de su pueblo (Hebreos 7:23-28).

Evangelio — Ama al Señor y a tu prójimo como a ti mismo. No hay ningún mandamiento más importante que estos (Marcos 12:28b-34).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Uno de los santos más populares de la época medieval fue el soldado húngaro conocido como Martín Caballero o Martín de Tours (c. 315-397). Esta popularidad se debió a su biografía escrita por un discípulo, Sulpicio Severo. Su vida fue el mejor ejemplo de santidad a través de varios siglos. Contiene esta biografía muchos de los acontecimientos, enseñanzas y milagros de la vida del santo que fue soldado en el ejército romano antes de su conversión. Muchos ignoran que fue monje, misionero y obispo por muchos años.

Su imagen decora muchos almanaques latinoamericanos y él continúa siendo un santo popular. La representación más común de san Martín es la de un soldado romano sobre un caballo que rasga su manto rojo a la mitad con una espada para darle una parte a un pobre sentado a los pies del caballo. Según su biografía, Martín hizo esto durante el proceso de su conversión y resulta que el pobre limosnero se le aparece en un sueño revelándose como Cristo mismo, ya que lo que un cristiano hace por los pobres y marginados lo hace por Jesús.

VIDA ENTREGADA A DIOS

La ascesis de John Henry Newman, su idea respecto de la obediencia a Dios, su idea de la castidad, de la pobreza, del amor, son absolutamente dignas de un religioso varón ya formado. Es como si su época de conversión hubiese recibido de manera infusa toda la vida del religioso. El posee una regla, que esta en Dios. El ama su trabajo porque es de Dios. Hay cosas que el hace con gusto, otras que resultan pesadas; pero las ama, porque el quiere que la obra pertenezca totalmente a Dios. Con frecuencia es como si escribiese con su sangre y llegase a entender con sus ultimas fuerzas. Propiamente esta ante su trabajo como un fundador de una orden ante su fundación.
