*The LORD keeps faith forever,
secures justice for the oppressed,
gives food to the hungry.*

— Psalm 146:7

THE CALL TO DISCIPLESHIP

The core vocation in the Gospel of Mark is the vocation, or call, to discipleship. Today's Gospel passage provides us with one last example of what the vocation to discipleship means, and one example of what it doesn't mean. A destitute widow shows us that discipleship means following Jesus' way of service, even if it requires giving one's livelihood (or life). The scribes show us by their bad example that discipleship should entail a vocation to extend God's care to those who are most in need.

In our reading from the book of Kings another widow and her son are close to death. They too give what little they have, but they are rewarded by Elijah with food enough for a year. And the reading from the Letter to the Hebrews reminds us that Jesus sacrificed his life "to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him" (Hebrews 9:28).

TREASURES OF OUR TRADITIONS

Veterans Day began with the signing of a symbolic treaty between the Allies and Germany ending World War I (then called the "Great War") on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. The auspicious date was actually a well-established religious holiday, the feast of Saint Martin of Tours, a beloved soldier saint of the army of Rome. After World War II, Armistice Day was changed to Veterans Day in the United States and Remembrance Day in Britain, but of course the feast of Saint Martin endures.

Martin was named after Mars, the god of war, and against the advice of his parents he went on his own to church. He became a catechumen at the age of ten. By fifteen he was enlisted in the cavalry in France. Coming across a poor man, Martin had an impulse to divide his bright red soldier's cape and clothe him. He later had the insight that he had served Christ, and the other half of his cape became a lifelong sign to him of his duty to serve the poor. Housed in a tiny church capella or "chapel," the cape became a great object of pilgrimage on the way to Compostella, and a favored place for the prayers of soldiers. Martin was not so eager to serve as bishop as he had been as a soldier, and legend says that he hid in a barn filled with geese to avoid episcopal election. To this day, the customary meal for November 11 is goose! Traditionally, this is the last feast day before winter closes in, and begins a period of fasting once known as "Saint Martin's Lent" or "Martinmas," that later developed into the season of Advent.

SECOND COLLECTION

November 17/18

Catholic Campaign for Human Development.

Next week, our second collection will be for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. Over 43 million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs to empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to lift themselves out of poverty. By supporting this collection you give people a hand up, not a hand out. Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection

December 1/2 . Building Fund & Capital Campaign

This collection will help provide funds to repay the funds borrowed from the Diocese to build the Religious Education Center. Parishioners who have pledged to the Capital Campaign may use the pink envelopes to make their pledge payments..

All Souls Envelopes can be found at the back of the church. If you would like to write the names of your deceased loved ones on the envelope and return it, all envelopes will remain on the altar for the month of November

ST MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL MINISTRY

The St. Michael the Archangel Ministry needs more ministers to join us, especially those of you who are bilingual. This ministry is created and commissioned to maintain a prayerful-worshiping campus in a safe environment for our parishioners and our community. You will have the opportunity to actively lead and support St. Paul's Emergency Plan. This plan includes, but not limited to; fire safety, evacuation plan, active shooter awareness and general safety at St. Paul.

If you have the following professional background we ask you to share your God given talents and align with this ministry:

Law enforcement, military, safety, security, education, legal, medical, social services, psychiatry, love for our fellow men and women. We invite all to join us.

Interested? Please call Dale Yamamoto (916)257-3323 or the parish office.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Winter is fast approaching and it becomes a difficult time for those who call the streets their home. Our Social Justice Ministry is once again collecting socks for the homeless.

You can leave your donations in the bins at the entrances of the church, or drop them off at the rectory office during office hours. God bless you for your generosity.

JESSE TREE

This year we have a "Jesse Tree". If any of our registered parishioners are having a difficult financial time in purchasing Christmas gifts for your children (ages 0-15) please let us know. All requests are confidential.

Requests must be received by Friday, November 16th. Please contact the parish office or Ramona Cervantes (916) 549-8114.

HEALTH MINISTRY

Got a Cold?

More than 100 viruses can cause colds, the world's most common illness, and most people average about three colds every year. Once it enters the body the cold virus begins to multiply, causing sore throat, sneezing, runny nose, watery eyes, aches and pains, mild fever, nasal congestion and coughing.

Over-the-counter cough and cold remedies may relieve some of the symptoms, but they will not prevent, cure or even shorten the course of the illness.

To lessen your chances of coming down with a cold keep up your natural resistance through good nutrition, and getting enough sleep and exercise. Avoid direct contact with those who have colds, and wash your hands frequently.

If you get a cold be respectful of others, cover your coughs and sneezes,.

LLAMADOS A SER DISCIPULOS

La vocación central en el Evangelio según san Marcos es la vocación, o el llamado de ser discípulos. El pasaje del Evangelio de hoy nos brinda por lo menos un ejemplo de qué significa la vocación de ser discípulo y un ejemplo de lo que no significa. Una viuda pobre nos muestra que ser un buen discípulo significa seguir el camino de servicio de Jesús, incluso si implica entregar todo lo que tenemos para vivir (o incluso nuestra vida). Los letrados nos muestran con su mal ejemplo que ser un buen discípulo implica la vocación de hacer llegar el cuidado de Dios a los más necesitados.

En nuestra lectura del libro de los Reyes otra viuda y su hijo corren peligro de morir. Ellos también entregan lo poco que tienen, pero son recompensados por Elías con comida suficiente para un año. Y la lectura de la carta a los hebreos nos recuerda que Jesús sacrificó su vida “para salvación de aquellos que lo aguardan” (Hebreos 9:28).

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — El profeta Elías pide a una viuda pobre que le dé algo de beber y un poco de pan. (1 Reyes 17:10-16).

Salmo — Alaba, alma mía, al Señor (Psalm 146 [145]).

Segunda lectura — Cristo se sacrificó una sola vez para borrar todos los pecados de los humanos. (Hebreos 9:24-28).

Evangelio — El óbolo de la viuda de unos cuantos centavos es mucho más grande que todas las otras donaciones porque en su pobreza (Marcos 12:38-44 [41-44]).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Antes de regresar a la derecha del Padre, Jesús prometió estar con sus discípulos siempre. Esta es una promesa que él ha mantenido de diversas maneras, estando con nosotros por su Espíritu, por su palabra, en nuestro corazón. Pero Jesús también desea estar con sus siervos de una manera física y real, es por eso que en su Última Cena tomó pan y vino consagrándolos como su cuerpo y sangre.

La Eucaristía que Jesús inauguró el Jueves Santo continúa consagrándose día tras día en las manos de sacerdotes santos y ni tan santos. No es la dignidad del cura que importa sino, la generosidad de Cristo que desea estar con sus fieles. Uno de estos fieles, el joven uruguayo Walter Elías Chango Rondeau, (1921-1939) en sus pocos años de vida encontró consuelo en el hecho de que Dios se entregó a sí mismo en la comunión.

Según testigos, Walter animaba a sus compañeros a la reconciliación y la Eucaristía. Hablaba tan elocuentemente del Santísimo Sacramento, que parecía sacerdote. Siendo laico, él supo ejercer su sacerdocio bautismal.

BAUTISMOS

La celebración del Sacramento del Bautismo, es el primer sábado de cada mes a las 9:45 a.m. En la Iglesia

Requisitos: Haber atendido los padres y padrinos a las pláticas pre-bautismales, Traer comprobante si atendieron en otra parroquia. Padrinos y Madrinas: Si son pareja, que estén casados en la Iglesia Católica, y haber recibido los Sacramentos de Iniciación Cristiana

MEDITACION

Darlo todo porque Cristo lo ha dado todo; Francisco, pobre y padre de los pobres, quería vivir totalmente como un pobre; sufría si encontraba a alguien más pobre que él, y no por vanidad, sino a causa de su compasión. Él quería usar una túnica rústica y corriente, y a menudo compartida con un mendigo. Pero él era un padre muy rico, porque movido por su caridad y socorrer a los pobres en tiempo de frío, iba a la casa de los ricos y pedía una capa o abrigo prestado para dárselo al necesitado, pero con la condición de no volver a ver esas cosas

Nada le causaba más pena que ver insultar a un pobre o maldecir a cualquier criatura, El que hablaba mal de un pobre –decía-injurias a Cristo, de quien el pobre es un noble símbolo de Cristo ya que él se hizo pobre. En este mundo.

DIA DE LOS VETERANOS

En el Día de los Veteranos honramos a todos aquellos que sirvieron por la causa de la libertad" En 1918, en el undécimo mes, después de cuatro años de guerra cruel, un acuerdo del alto al fuego conocido como 'armisticio' fue firmado en Rethondes, Francia, con el cual finalizó la Primera Guerra Mundial. La "guerra que terminaría con todas las guerras" terminó. Más de 10 millones de vidas habían sido perdidas para siempre. Al aclamar el fin de la guerra, el presidente Woodrow Wilson manifestó: "A nosotros en América, las reflexiones del Día del Armisticio serán colmadas del solemne orgullo que nos causa el heroísmo de aquellos que murieron al servicio de su país, y con la gratitud por la victoria, ambos debido a esa cosa de la cual nos han liberado, y también a la oportunidad que le han dado a América para demostrar su simpatía con la paz y la justicia en el consejo de las naciones." En 1938, el Congreso de los Estados Unidos aprobó una ley que declaró el 11 de noviembre día feriado en todo el país. La ley manifestaba que ese día "será dedicado a la causa de la paz mundial." La ley fue enmendada en 1954 cambiándole de nombre al feriado que pasaría a ser conocido como el Día de los Veteranos, para que los veteranos de todas las guerras pudieran ser honrados. El Día de los Veteranos honra a todos los que han servido en las fuerzas armadas. El día tiene nombres distintos en diversos países, pero su propósito es igual en todas partes donde se observa
