THE GLORIOUS BIBLE

It is one of the glories of the Bible that it can embrace many meanings in a single passage. —St. Thomas Aquinas

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time November 18, 2018

Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.
— Mark 13:31

ENCOURAGEMENT

This Sunday's Gospel is our final selection from Mark for this liturgical year. It is taken from the end of Jesus' teaching in Jerusalem immediately preceding the account of his arrest and passion. In it Jesus gives his disciples hope to sustain them through his passion and death and any persecution or suffering that they would encounter after his resurrection.

The words from the book of Daniel also provided hope and encouragement to the people of Daniel's time. The encouragement in these scriptures is meant for us as well, for none of us will escape tribulation in our lives. Followers of Jesus will be able to endure suffering with joyful hope, knowing that Christ's love will lead us along the way of discipleship and give us eternal life with God.

TREASURES OF OUR TRADITIONS

November is a month of remembrance for the dead, and cemeteries have long been a focus for prayer. Our tradition holds great respect for bodily remains, since the body was created and redeemed by God, was once the "dwelling place of the Holy Spirit," and has a destiny of life with God in glory. The funeral practices of the early church contrasted greatly with those of the pagans, who had a great dread of the dead body. The ancient Christian funeral liturgy ended with the relatives and friends giving a final kiss to the body. It expressed affection and showed their faith that the grave would not be the last word. This kiss horrified pagans, who thought that any contact with the dead was degrading.

Every year on their loved one's "birthday to life," the Christians would return to the place of their burial to mark their profound communion with those whose lives were hidden in Christ. Typically, they buried the dead with their faces turned toward the east, symbolizing the rising of the Sun of Justice, Christ, at the end of days. They were attracted to the catacombs or burial grounds just as we are today. They would often celebrate the Eucharist at the tomb. Before long, as soon as Christians were allowed to build places for worship, they relocated cemeteries from beyond the city walls to surround the church. This was not so much because the church made the ground holy, but because the bodies of the saints hallowed the ground on which the church was built, a subtle but beautiful difference.

THANKS

One act of thanksgiving when things go wrong with us is worth one thousand thank-yous when things are agreeable to our inclination. —St. John of Ávila

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY

Our Bereavement Ministry mission is to assist families in both spiritual and corporal ways to aid in the loss of a loved one.

The ministry participates in vigil service, the burial mass and in providing comfort and a place for family members to meet and remember their loved ones.

The Bereavement Ministry provides desserts and salads to supplement food the family provides at receptions following the funeral of members of their families. The ministry is reaching out to parish members to join with this ministry and help provide the desserts and salads needed for these receptions.

Volunteering to help requires providing a dessert, or salad to feed approximately 5 people

Members are normally only solicited to provide food once a month.

The support volunteers providing food are greatly appreciated by the families of deceased members, and is a vital part of the corporal work of mercy to bury the dead.

If you would like to join this vital ministry please call the rectory office (916)381-5200.

ST MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL MINISTRY

The St. Michael the Archangel Ministry needs more ministers to join us, especially those of you who are bilingual. This ministry is created and commissioned to maintain a prayerful-worshiping campus in a safe environment for our parishioners and our community. You will have the opportunity to actively lead and support St. Paul's Emergency Plan. This plan includes, but not limited to; fire safety, evacuation plan, active shooter awareness and general safety at St. Paul.

If you have the following professional background we ask you to share your God given talents and align with this ministry:

Law enforcement, military, safety, security, education, legal, medical, social services, psychiatry, love for our fellow men and women. We invite all to join us.

Interested? Please call Dale Yamamoto (916)257-3323 or the parish office.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

Winter is fast approaching and it becomes a difficult time for those who call the streets their home. Our Social Justice Ministry is once again collecting socks for the homeless.

You can leave your donations in the bins at the entrances of the church, or drop them off at the rectory office during office hours. God bless you for your generosity.

ALL SOULS ENVELOPES

All Souls Envelopes can be found at the back of the church. If you would like to write the names of your deceased loved ones on the envelope and return it, all envelopes will remain on the altar for the month of November

WHY GO TO MASS?

God has a special message for us.

When we listen to the readings, the homily, and the prayers of the Mass, God speaks to us in a special way. We should come away from each Mass with at least on inspiration that will impact our lives in some way. We just have to pay attention and be open to what the Lord is trying to tell us.

We speak to God through our singing, our communal responses and prayers from the depths of our hearts. During the Mass we have the opportunity to ask God for what we need, promise God that we will do what He wants us to do, and thank God for the many blessings he has bestowed upon us.

Trigésimo Tercer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

18 de noviembre 2018

ALIENTO

El Evangelio de este domingo es nuestra selección final de Marcos para este año litúrgico. Pertenece a las últimas enseñanzas de Jesús en Jerusalén y se encuentra inmediatamente antes del relato de su arresto y pasión. En este, Jesús da a sus discípulos esperanza para sostenerlos en su pasión y muerte y en cualquier persecución o sufrimiento que enfrenten después de su resurrección.

Las palabras del libro de Daniel también les brindan esperanza y aliento a los contemporáneos de Daniel. El aliento de estas lecturas también nos sirve a nosotros, ya que ninguno de nosotros puede evitar transitar tiempos difíciles en su vida. Los seguidores de Jesús podrán soportar el sufrimiento con esperanza porque saben que el amor de Cristo nos guiará para poder ser buenos discípulos y nos dará la vida eterna junto a Dios.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — En aquel tiempo se levantará el guardián de tu pueblo. Entonces serán salvados cada uno de los que estén inscritos en el libro. (Daniel 12:1-3).

Salmo — Protégeme, Dios mío, que me refugio en ti (Salmo 16 [15]).

Segunda lectura — Ahora, el que ofreció un único sacrificio por los pecados y está sentado a la derecha de Dios, espera que sus enemigos sean colocados como tarima de sus pies (Hebreos 10:11-14, 18).

Evangelio — Nadie sabe cuándo será el día ni la hora (Marcos 13:24-32).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El 19 de noviembre del 1969 (Día del Descubrimiento de Puerto Rico), el Papa Pablo VI declaró a Nuestra Señora Madre de la Divina Providencia, como patrona de la Isla del Encanto. Este acto fue el culmen de un largo proceso devocional hacia la Madre de la Divina Providencia empujado por el obispo Catalán Gil Esteve y Tomás quien trajo la primera imagen de la Virgen a la isla Boricua.

La imagen actual es de María sentada con su Hijo (la Divina Providencia) dormido sobre su regazo. Ella sostiene la manita izquierda del niño en sus manos mientras lo mira cariñosamente. La imagen inspira ternura y muestra la confianza de María en la Divina Providencia de su Hijo, que aunque este dormido, no se descuida de ella ni de los fieles.

Esta imagen recuerda el pasaje bíblico en el cual Jesús dormía en la barca de Pedro, despertando a tiempo para calmar los mares y los vientos que la amenazaban. He aquí que la devoción a la Madre de la Divina Providencia es confiar que Dios siempre llega a nuestro amparo cuando lo invocamos

MEDITACION

A la hora que menos penséis vendrá el Hijo del hombre; Para evitar cualquier pregunta indiscreta sobre el momento de su venida, Jesús declara: En cuanto al día y la hora, nadie sabe nada, ni los ángeles del cielo, ni el Hijo solo el Padre. Se nos oculta para que estemos en vela y que cada uno de nosotros pueda pensar que este acontecimiento se realizara durante su vida. Si se nos hubiera revelado el momento de su venida, su vuelta sería en vano: las naciones y los pueblos no lo desearían. El dijo que volvería, pero no ha precisado el momento. Así, todos los pueblos y generaciones y todos los siglos tienen sed de él. Es cierto que ha dado signos de su venida, pero no se ve su realización.
