*[K]eep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ.
— 1 Timothy 6:14*

HOW GOD INTENDS US TO LIVE

Today's readings are again directed to believers, communities of faith. As in last week's reading, Amos confronts us with a condemnation of those whose lives are focused on pleasure and self-absorption. The psalm contrasts that focus with the Lord's—justice for the oppressed; food the hungry; freedom for captives; sight to the blind; raising of those who are bowed down; loving the just; protecting strangers, orphans, and the widow; and by doing so, thwarting the way of the wicked.

Timothy urges the pursuit of righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Luke tells the familiar tale of the wealthy man and the poor beggar at his doorstep, who experience life very differently in this world and in the next. We are once again being given clear indications about how God intends for us to live our lives.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

Over the past century, a desire to recover a deep sense of unity among all believers in Christ has grown. The "ecumenical movement" (from the Greek word meaning the "the whole inhabited world") began among Protestant Christians, but was given great energy in 1920 with a letter from the Orthodox Patriarch of Constantinople, calling for closer dialogue and cooperation among Christians. In 1960, Pope John XXIII invited Protestant and Orthodox observers to the Second Vatican Council. In 1964, the Council's Decree on Ecumenism named these Christians "separated brethren," a huge leap forward from the time of labeling them as "outside the Church." A year later, a new pope, Paul VI, and the Orthodox Patriarch officially nullified the condemnations that walled off East from West for nine hundred years.

The pace and optimism of the 1960s has sadly waned, and the signs of progress toward unity are few; yet there are wider agreements on sharing Communion among various Christian denominations, and among Protestants agreements regarding sharing of ecclesiastical life and ministry. Among the success stories of the ecumenical movement are greater cooperation among Christian clergy, a similar Lectionary for Protestants and Catholics, and even experiments in the monastic life and common worship.

PRAYING TO THE ANGELS

We pray to the angels, for they are given to us as guardians.

World Mission Sunday

Organized by the Propagation of the Faith is a day set aside for Catholics worldwide to recommit themselves to the Church's missionary activity through prayer and sacrifice. Every year the needs of the Catholic Church in the missions grow—as new dioceses are formed, as new seminaries are opened because of the growing number of young men hearing Christ's call to follow Him as priests, as areas devastated by war or natural disasters are rebuilt, and as other areas, long suppressed are opening up to hear the message of Christ and His Church. We appreciate your generosity.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

In last week's bulletin, we conveyed that the Knights of Columbus Faith in Action model allows us to come together to share our faith, celebrate fraternity with our families, and do what we do best – stand shoulder to shoulder in service to our community and to defend life at all stages and in every condition.

This is a realization of the changing needs of men in the twenty-first century. It seeks to balance all of our key priorities with theirs — Faith, Family, Community and Life — and present them in a way that is clear to our members. Our goal is for men to lead their family in service — not leave their family for service.

This week, we'd like to provide some information on the model's FAITH component. The whole goal of the program is to strengthen men and their families in the Catholic faith. The goal is to have programs that help create an authentic connection with our loving God and his Son Jesus Christ. Programs in this category are designed to draw us closer to God and the Church in a tangible and meaningful way — whether through helping the future shepherds of the Mother Church, quiet contemplation in a spiritual reflection program, or honoring Mary, Mother of God. These programs arm us for the spiritual battle that our men and families face daily.

Our Council currently conducts several FAITH based programs but are open to others. Programs can be as simple as encouraging devotion to Mary by promoting the praying of the Rosary whether it is as an individual or together as a group. More complex programs that could be considered, are opportunities for spiritual reflection in the form of a retreat. If you would like to know more about the FAITH programs we are currently involved in or programs that could possibly be coordinated, please reach out to us at mothersetoncouncil6922@gmail.com Thank you.

FESTIVAL 'THANK YOU'

Thank you for participating in the Fall Festival this year. It was huge success because of your participation. Everyone enjoyed the nice weather, delicious ethnic foods, spending family time, and great entertainment, including the performance by our Father Joyle. We thank the many volunteers who prepared the food, worked in the food booths, ran Fun Land for the children, and to those who worked behind the scenes. The success of the Fall Festival is due to the dedication and support of these volunteers. Kudos to them.

The festival began with the kickoff dinner on Saturday. Thanks to Phil DeLeon and Dylan Pletcher for preparing and cooking the delicious Hawaiian Chicken dinner. Those who attended enjoyed the great food and had a good time socializing with fellow parishioners.

We thank Tony Basquez and the volunteers who worked tirelessly for several weeks preparing the plaza for the Fall Festival. They setup the stage, shade, canopies, tables and chairs, canopies, and made final preparations for the Fall Festival. They also helped with the cleanup, teardown of some of the chairs and table, and canopies immediately after the festival. Over the next week or so he and these volunteers will tear down the festival area and put the equipment away.

It's not a festival until you include entertainment. A special thanks to the performers who provided the outstanding entertainment. Kudos also goes to Glenda Odra for being the Master of Ceremonies and Rosendo Flores for providing and handling the sound system.

Congratulations to Rosendo Flores, first place winner of the first St. Paul America Idol contest. He won $100 for his beautiful singing performance. We also thank all the contestants who competed in the event. The judges said they were all talented and it was a challenge choosing a winner.

We look forward to seeing you at the 48th Annual Fall Festival in September 2020. Save the date. See you then.

COMO DIOS PRETENDE QUE VIVAMOS

Las lecturas de hoy una vez más están dirigidas a los creyentes, comunidades de fe. Así como la lectura de la semana pasada. Amós nos conforta con una condena de aquellos cuyas vidas están enfocadas en el placer y la auto absorción. El Salmo contrasta ese enfoque con el del Señor: justicia para los oprimidos, alimentos para los hambrientos, libertad para los cautivos, vista para los ciegos, levantar a los agachados, amor al justo, proteger a los extranjeros, huérfanos y las viudas; y al hacerlo, frustrando el camino a los malvados.

Timoteo nos insta a la búsqueda de la justicia, la devoción, la fe, el amor, la paciencia y la mansedumbre. Lucas cuenta la historia familiar de un hombre rico y un mendigo en su puerta, que lleva una vida muy diferente en este mundo y en el otro. Una vez más estamos recibiendo indicaciones acerca de cómo Dios quiere que vivamos nuestras vidas

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Ay de los complacidos. Sus jergas disolutas desaparecerán (Amós 6:1a, 4-7).

Salmo — Alabemos al Señor, que viene a salvarnos (Salmo 146 [145]).

Segunda lectura — Compete bien por la fe. Guarda los mandamientos hasta que aparezca el Señor Jesús (1 Timoteo 6:11-16).

Evangelio — Recuerda que recibiste las cosas buenas durante tu vida; Lázaro recibió lo que era malo. Ahora Lázaro es consolado mientras que tú eres atormentado (Lucas 16:19-31).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Desde el siglo XVII, el 2 de octubre la Iglesia ha celebrado la conmemoración de los Santos Ángeles Custodios. Muchos de nosotros conocemos la imagen de un niño y su hermanita caminando por un puente tembloroso y podrido. Sobre ellos está en vigilante una bella criatura halada, su ángel protector. Esta imagen de seres con alas es una que los cristianos tomamos de los paganos romanos y griegos, ya que bíblicamente hablando la mayor parte de los ángeles no tienen alas.

Últimamente los ángeles se han puesto de moda entre los no cristianos, pero no debemos dejarnos llevar por sus doctrinas "new age". Muchos de ellos buscan poner a los ángeles a su propio servicio pidiéndoles dinero, su pareja y otras cosas. Los ángeles no existen para enriquecernos. Más bien hay que saber que los ángeles están para glorificar y servir a Dios y cuidar a los humanos marginados. Jesús mismo nos dice que hay que cuidarnos de despreciar a los pequeños (gente pobre y oprimida) "porque les aseguro que sus ángeles en el cielo están constantemente en presencia de mi Padre celestial" (Mateo 18:10-11).

HERODES TRATABA DE VER A JESUS

Como el sol y la luna ilumina nuestros cuerpos, así Cristo y la Iglesia iluminan nuestro espíritu. Por lo menos los iluminan si nosotros no somos ciegos en el espíritu. Porque así como el sol y la luna no dejan de irradiar su claridad sobre los ciegos que no ven la luz, así Cristo envía su luz a nuestro espíritu. Pero esta iluminación solo será efectiva si nuestra ceguera no les ofrece obstáculo. Pues bien, que los ciegos sigan a Cristo gritando: ¡ten piedad de nosotros, Hijo de David! Y cuando hayan recobrado la vista, gracias a Cristo serán iluminados por el esplendor de su luz. Pero no todos los que ven son iluminados de la misma manera por Cristo.
