Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time October 20, 2019

*I lift up my eyes toward the mountains;
whence shall help come to me?
My help is from the LORD, who made heaven and earth.*
— Psalm 121:1-2

PERSISTENCE

Today's readings are about persistence, passionate persistence. Exodus tells of a battle won despite weariness because Moses, with help from Aaron and Hur, held his hands raised.

Timothy asks that same persistence of his community and us. Luke tells of a court case won by a widow, despite the dishonesty of the judge, because she will not leave him alone.

The psalm reminds us that God is everywhere, guarding us from harm day and night, coming and going, now and forever.

The readings are about persistence, the relentless, unwavering pursuit of what must not be lost. The readings are about God's passionate persistence in pursuing us, seeking to win our hearts.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITIONS

Although the hours of daylight are rapidly dwindling, many people would say that these October days bring the year's most splendid weather. Americans are riders and joggers, not strollers, and so the pleasures of the season are often lost on us. This is not the case with many Jewish people, who observe an ancient rule in walking to synagogue on the Sabbath. On city streets and suburban sidewalks in many cities, we may notice around sunset the nicely dressed families walking and chatting on Friday afternoon.

After a short prayer at dusk, the families stroll home again for a relaxing and festive meal. They return to synagogue in the morning, and then spend an afternoon in family leisure until three stars appear in the night sky and Sabbath ends.

Catholics, on the other hand, pile into the car and drive even a short distance to Mass; some even divide the family to participate at different hours. For Jews, the leisurely walk marks a dividing line between hectic life commitments and a day of abundant joy and enrichment. Before we became an automobile culture, Catholics embraced a similar pace, and in most places walked to church.

These lovely days of fall invite us to tap into an old and life-giving tradition. If you live within a mile of your church, walk next week. If you must drive, park at a good distance and walk the rest of the way. Talk about your life, greet strangers, notice the crunch of leaves under your shoes. You may be surprised at how different Sunday Mass feels when it is framed by leisure!

SECOND COLLECTION

October 19/20

World Mission Sunday

Organized by the Propagation of the Faith is a day set aside for Catholics worldwide to recommit themselves to the Church's missionary activity through prayer and sacrifice. Every year the needs of the Catholic Church in the missions grow—as new dioceses are formed, as new seminaries are opened because of the growing number of young men hearing Christ's call to follow Him as priests, as areas devastated by war or natural disasters are rebuilt, and as other areas, long suppressed are opening up to hear the message of Christ and His Church. We appreciate your generosity.

November 2/3

.St. Paul Building Fund & Capital Campaign

This collection will help provide funds to repay the funds borrowed from the Diocese to build the Religious Education Center. Parishioners who have pledged to the Capital Campaign may use the pink envelopes to make their pledge payments.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

We would like to share with you the FAMILY component of the Knights of Columbus Faith in Action model. Our Family programs are developed for families, by families. Our founder, Father Michael J. McGivney sought to strengthen the familial bond of father to mother and children to parents. Catholics often struggle with the reality that they do not have the opportunity to socialize and/or pray with other faith-filled Catholic families. It can be quite a challenge to continue to ground ourselves and raise our children in the faith when there is such limited exposure.

Our Family programs are an evolution and response to a society that seeks to weaken the bonds of family. We must make it clear that society should value a family that is faithful to God and each other. Father McGivney's vision for family life was not only financial and material aid but also spiritual strength, as holiness is the calling of all baptized Christians. Put plainly, the majority of our time is easily spent in secular circles unless we intentionally create ways to live the domestic church. These programs help us to live this call.

Our Council currently conducts several FAMILY based programs but are open to others. Programs can be as simple as modeling Christian family values or coming together as a group to celebrate the life that our Lord has blessed us with.

The Council just recently celebrated our annual Family Day Picnic, providing an opportunity for Knights and their families, invited guests, and the widows of brothers who have passed, to come together and fellowship. Next year, our goal is to incorporate our parish family members, inviting all of you to join us, as we are all members of God's family. If you would like to know more about the FAMILY programs we are currently involved in or programs that could possibly be coordinated, please reach out to us at mothersetoncouncil6922@gmail.com Thank you.

As you left mass today, you almost certainly noticed men wearing bright yellow vests. Mother Seton Council members were conducting our annual fundraising drive to benefit those with Intellectual Disabilities, a community-oriented program conducted by Knights of Columbus Councils across the nation.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your generosity and ask that you continue to pray for those with any form of disability. God bless you.

And finally...

Our council is in need of your assistance as we plan to provide Thanksgiving Baskets for 200 Families in Need. This is an undertaking that can only be accomplished with the support of fellow parishioners. We are currently collecting non-perishable food items to aid in us in our campaign.

Your donations can be left in the bins in the entranceways to the Church when you come to Mass.

Please help us make the season a little brighter for those in need. Thank you.

LA PERSISTENCIA

Las lecturas de hoy son acerca de la persistencia, persistencia apasionada. El Éxodo narra una batalla ganada a pesar del cansancio porque Moisés, con la ayuda de Aarón y Jur, mantuvieron sus brazos levantados. Timoteo pide esa misma persistencia de su comunidad y de nosotros. Lucas cuenta un caso de justicia que gana una viuda, a pesar del juez injusto, porque ella no dejaba de acudir a él. El Salmo nos recuerda que Dios está en todos lados, cuidándonos día y noche de cualquier daño, yendo y viniendo, ahora y por toda la eternidad. Las lecturas son acerca de la persistencia, la búsqueda constante e inquebrantable de lo no se debe perder. Las lecturas son acerca de la persistencia apasionada de Dios en buscarnos, buscarnos para ganar nuestros corazones.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Mientras las manos de Moisés estaban en alto, Israel se imponían en la batalla (Éxodo 17:8-13).

Salmo — El auxilio me viene del Señor (Salmo 121 [120]).

Segunda lectura — Proclamen la palabra; sean persistentes cuando sea conveniente o no (2 Timoteo 3:14 — 4:2).

La Sabiduría es un espíritu que ama a los hombres, pero no dejara sin castigo al que blasfema, porque Dios

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 1823 se fundó el pueblo de San Rafael de las Quebradillas en Puerto Rico. Este pueblo fue dedicado al santo patrón de los pescadores. Rafael, también es el ángel patrono de la salud. Aunque hoy día su fiesta esta combinada con los otros arcángeles el 29 de septiembre, en el viejo calendario este santo fue conmemorado el 24 de octubre.

Rafael (Dios salva) se encuentra en el libro de Tobías y según el autor bíblico, este ángel es el ángel de la guarda de Tobías. El mismo Rafael se presenta como uno de los siete ángeles o arcángeles que llevan las oraciones de los justos al trono de Dios y que gozan de la presencia gloriosa del Santísimo (Tobías 12:15).

Mi padre siempre dice que hay que pedir una cosa a Dios, la salud. Si tenemos la salud nada nos falta. Es interesante que en latín, salud y salvación son la misma palabra, salus. El santo patrón de la salud, Rafael nos recuerda que Dios es el único que nos puede salvar, dándonos salud de cuerpo, alma y espíritu.

CRISTO ES LA PIEDRA ANGULAR

¿Acaso no han probado lo bueno que es el Señor? Se han acercado al que es la piedra viva rechazada por los hombres, y que sin embargo es preciosa para Dios que la escogió. También ustedes, como piedras vivas, se han edificado y pasan a ser un Templo espiritual, una comunidad santa de sacerdotes que ofrecen sacrificios espirituales agradables a Dios por medio de Cristo Jesús. Dice la Escritura: Yo voy a colocar en Sion una piedra angular, escogida y preciosa: quien se afirme en ella no quedara defraudado.

Ustedes, pues, que creen, recibirán honor. En cambio para aquellos que no creen, él es la piedra rechazada por los constructores que se han convertido en piedra angular. Piedra en que la gente tropieza y roca que hace caer. 1 Pedro 2, 3-8
