St. Paul Miraculous Infant Jesus of Prague Family Prayer Group

Our Mission

We facilitate the devotion by doing a 9-day Novena from families to families. In the long run, we hope to deepen our personal relationship with the Lord after experiencing an intimate encounter with him in the homes that we visit. We pray that families may be brought closer together by the Infant of Prague. We encourage families to have a holy respect for unborn babies and children. Like Mary and Joseph of Nazareth, the families that we visit may have the flair to rear their children as the child Jesus was at home in Nazareth. Whatever donations may be given by the families during the Novena Prayers will be offered to St. Paul Church.

Who We Are

We, the MIJP Family Prayer Group, a small volunteer prayer group of St. Paul Parish Sacramento, inspired by our devotion to the Miraculous Infant of Prague, would like many families and homes in our parish to be closer and more subservient to our Infant Jesus of Prague.

What We Do

Our Prayer

- We, the MIJP Family Prayer Group offer into thy hands, O' Holy Miraculous Infant Jesus of Prague, to our Mother Mary Immaculate, and Our Queen.
- We renounce Satan, his evil works, prompts and tricks.
- We give ourselves entirely to Jesus Christ and to our Mother Mary, Blessed Virgin.

How You Can Join Us

Anyone is welcomed to join the Miraculous Infant Jesus of Prague Family Prayer Group. If you are interested to join this religious prayer group, please fill out the form on the reserve side. Completed form can either be returned to the Rectory Office, or placed it in the collection basket, or mailed it in to St Paul Catholic Church, P.O. Box 292280, Sacramento, CA 95829. You may also call the Rectory Office at (916) 381-5200, directly or contact one of the names listed on this brochure.
