Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

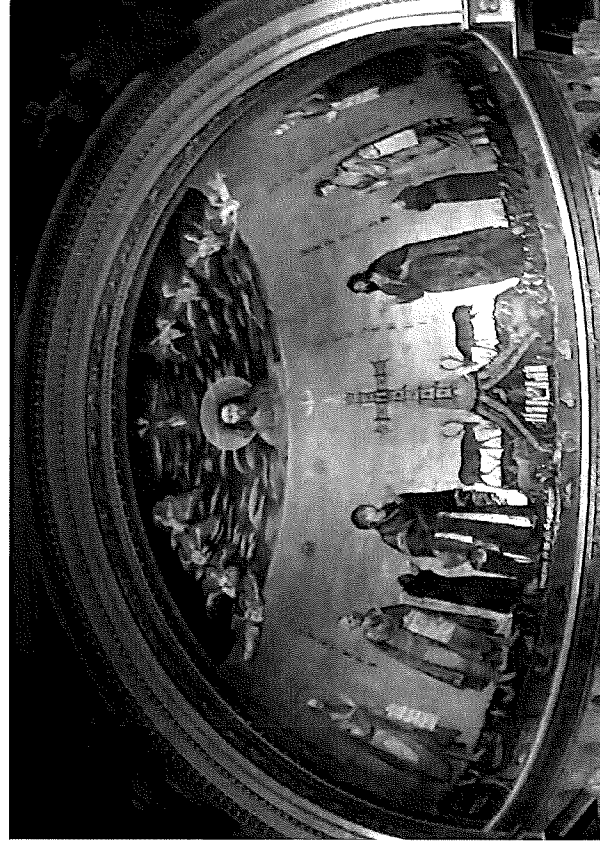

Another Liturgical Year comes to an end this week and it is capped off by the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Christ reigns and, above all, He desires to reign in our hearts with His immense love. May we open our hearts to the King of the Universe! The Year of St. Joseph will officially come to an end on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, December 8. Let us take advantage of these final weeks invoking our parish patron.

Advent begins next Sunday. Time is passing quickly. Are we ready to meet the Lord? Be not afraid! He wants to encounter us now, in this life, through Word and Sacrament every day. As we grow in faith, we know that nothing can separate us from the love of God (see Romans 8:35-39).

Enjoy two views below of my time in Italy. Does the first one look familiar? The history of the Church is the history of the presence of Christ alive and risen! Let us take time to discover the richness of our faith and the beauty that adorns the Church throughout the ages. That beauty is Christ. "Beauty will save the world" – Fyodor Dostoevsky.

God Love You!!!
