FOOD FROM HEAVEN

God sustained the people of Israel for forty years in the desert with manna sent down from heaven, and Moses doesn't want them to forget it. God brought forth water from stone for them to drink, and Moses doesn't want them to forget this, either. And Moses tells them—twice—that the food that God sent was a food that neither they nor their ancestors before them had ever experienced before.

Jesus too speaks of food come down from heaven, food that the Jewish people had never experienced before. Recalling the manna in the desert, Jesus doesn't want them to forget it either, explaining that he is the food and drink of eternal life. And Paul reiterates to the Corinthians and to all of us that in the bread and in the cup, we share in the body and blood of Christ. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

SAINT ROMUALD (c. 951-1027) - June 19

"God so loved the world," declares John 3:16. "Do not love the world," warns 1 John 2:15. The "world" to love: this planet, entrusted to our stewardship, and its people, God's children all. The "world" to flee: "sensual lust, enticement for the eyes, and a pretentious life" (1 John 2:16). Born in nobility, Romuald's conversion followed the shock of witnessing his father murder an enemy. Renouncing his privileged world, Romuald sought God's world in monastic life. Its winding turns and several dead ends make Romuald's journey resonate with all who find life more maze than superhighway. Both the hermit's solitary struggle and community life's unique challenges shaped Romuald's legacy: his vast Camaldolese Benedictine family of monks, nuns, and lay associates who, these thousand years later, from the mountain solitude of Camaldoli, Italy to an urban monastery in Berkeley, California—in Asia, Africa, South America, Europe—integrate Romuald's experience into their witness of solitary prayer, communal charity and worship, and promotion of contemplative spirituality in this world that can so easily distract us from the God who loves it still.

PRAYER TO OVERCOME RACISM

Mary, friend and mother to all, through your Son, God has found a way to unite himself to every human being, called to be one people, sisters and brothers to each other.

We ask for your help in calling on your Son, seeking forgiveness for the times when we have failed to love and respect one another.

We ask for your help in obtaining from your Son the grace we need to overcome the evil of racism and to build a just society.

We ask for your help in following your Son, so that prejudice and animosity will no longer infect our minds or hearts but will be replaced with a love that respects the dignity of each person.

Mother of the Church, the Spirit of your Son Jesus warms our hearts: pray for us.

Amen.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

The "Little Church with the Big Heart" always applies throughout the entire year

June 14 — The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Today as we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ let us pray for those who are hungry, malnourished and starving.

Is there a family you know who need assistance? Please call the Society of St. Vincent de Paul so that together we can help those who are hungry.

St. Vincent de Paul has closed again for the month of June. A big thank you to those that brought in their Lenten Bags. The items on the bags are everyday products that most of us take for granted. We need those items all year long; so if you think about it when shopping, buy an extra item to donate once in while. We try to buy toilet tissue, bath soap, and eggs constantly. We definitely couldn't do that without your help.

After all we are: "The Little Church with the Big Heart"

Our "Friends in Need", will need the items on the bag all year long.

Remember you can usually get all the items at The Family Dollar, etc. for about $10.00.

Thank you very much!

WITH PRAISE AND THANKSGIVING TO ALMIGHTY GOD

A letter from Bishop Malone to All. May 30, 2020

Vigil of Pentecost

My dear brothers and sisters,

To be sure there has been more than enough to distract us during these months of the COVID-19 virus. So much so, that it would be easy to forget that there are other "life" issues that continue to surround us, and which we must address with the same ardor as with this pandemic.

I speak to you about the tragic death of Mr. George Floyd of Minneapolis this past week by members of the Minneapolis police department, and the response of many communities in our country to the taking of his life.

As a student of history, I recall that what was promised in the 19th Century in the condemnation of slavery, what was enacted in legislature in the early 1960's with the Civil Rights Act, and in the subsequent fight for equal treatment of people of color since then, clearly, there has not been enough to convert the minds of many Americans when it comes to their treatment and attitude towards people of color in our country. Minneapolis is a symptom of the reality that racism continues today much as it has in the past. Racism is not only an evil mindset, it runs so counter to the gospel as to leave us with the question as to why it continues to manifest itself in our day, in this day, in this past week. It is unconscionable for us as a society to allow events such as this to go without comment, and for the African-American community not to hear from us.

The death of George Floyd, so visible in the news, is by any standard offensive and abhorrent to the very heart of who we are as brothers and sisters in the local and larger community. We must not consider this just another news story, nor should we turn a deaf ear to the voices of many communities throughout the country who cry out in pain for justice for Mr. Floyd, for his family and community, and for those who still feel the sting of racism in our country. And certainly there are those many communities who live in fear that their constitutional right to peaceful protest is met with further opposition which only exacerbates, makes worse, the pain of stating that all lives matter, and all life is sacred. I was struck with emotion as I watched on the news Mr. Floyd begging, "I can't breathe," over and over again, until he could breathe no more. Those words are symptomatic of the justifiable mindset and reaction of those who have and remain targets of racism – they are suffocating, their voices are often silenced, the violence begets more violence. When will it end?

As your bishop, I ask you, I beg you to see in the faces of your brothers and sisters, of whatever color or ethnicity, the face of Jesus. I ask you to join me in praying for justice in the face of evil. I ask you to pray for the repose of the soul of Mr. Floyd, for his family who mourns his death, for the community of Minneapolis, and for the increased numbers of communities throughout our country where voices are being raised in protest this weekend. We pray for a peaceful response to this tragedy – but for a strong response nonetheless. And finally, let us never, never forget, that this situation is a "life" situation, demanding of us the same level of response we should give as Catholics to all life issues we face. Failing to do this will only embolden the insipid evil of racism to continue. In the name of Jesus, I proclaim that "It can not – and it must not be this way!"

Your brother in Christ,

+ Francis I. Malone
Bishop of Shreveport
