

Evangelization 101.6

SHARE

If you experience God's love, are excited by it and share that opportunity with others, then you are evangelizing! "Jesus, I want to lead others to you"
We now get to share OUR unique journey into relationship with Christ and His Church.

MAKING SPACE FOR AN ENCOUNTER

A lot of evangelizing is inviting someone to a space or situation where they can meet God. Matthew invite Jesus to his house for a meal along with his fellow tax collectors. Matthew merely facilitated his friends meeting Jesus.

There can be many opportunities in our lives: coffee or a meal; a conference; a Mass; Bible study; fishing or another sport; men, women or young adult groups; charitable projects or events. I think you get the idea.

BE YOUR TRUE SELF

You don't have to be or act like someone different. God wants us to use your gifts, traits and relations that we already have.

We don't have to be smart, a teacher, or anything different from who we are. Besides, if you acted differently from how a person knows you, would they trust you? Probably not.

All you need is to be an intentional disciple who sees opportunities in your daily life, just as it is.
