SXMS – Hybrid Plan

The hybrid plan is structured in such a manner as to allow for each grade level student cohort/bubble to receive two days of in-person instruction and three days of online (asynchronous) instruction. This is in an effort to mitigate the spread of COVID-19. The groups will be divided as follows:

- Classes will be divided in half. The largest class will have seven students allowing for social distancing at all times.
- Group A will consist of half of the enrolled number of students per grade level and their siblings.
- Group A will attend in-person class from 8:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday.
- Group B will be online from 8:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. on Monday and Tuesday.
- The classroom teacher will address both groups simultaneously.
- In-person students will continue working online using a blended learning model while on campus.
- Wednesday all students will be online from 8:00 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. The building will be cleaned and sanitized. This will become our early release day.
- Group B will consist of the other half of the enrolled number of students per grade level and their siblings.
- Group B will attend in-person class from 8:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. on Thursday and

SXMS – Distance Learning

For families that choose to remain on the distance learning online platform students will continue meeting with their classroom teacher online via Google Meet and Google Classroom. It is important that the following guidelines be followed:

- Attendance is mandatory from 8:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.
- Excessive absences put scholarships in jeopardy and are a violation of Arizona Revised Statute
- 15-803. School attendance; exemptions; definitions

A. It is unlawful for any child who is between six and sixteen years of age to fail to attend school during the hours school is in session.

B. A child who is habitually truant or who has excessive absences may be adjudicated an incorrigible child as defined in section 8-201. Absences may be considered excessive when the number of absent days exceeds ten per cent of the number of required attendance days prescribed in section 15-802, subsection B, paragraph 1.

C. For the purposes of this section:

1. "Habitually truant" means a truant child who is truant for at least five school days within a school year.

2. "Truant" means an unexcused absence for at least one class period during the day.

3. "Truant child" means a child who is between six and sixteen years of age and who is not in attendance at a public or private school during the hours that school is in session, unless excused as provided by this section.
