Trust in God

Our diocesan patron saint, St. Therese of the Child Jesus, is the author of a beautiful and very long poem entitled "Why I Love You, O Mary". It was written in May, 1897 and was the last poem she wrote. In it, she calls Mary our mother and tells us that we can trust her to give herself completely to us if we give ourselves to her. Everything Mary receives from God will come to us. Below is the one of the stanzas of this beautiful work:

*O beloved Mother, despite my littleness,
Like you I possess The All-Powerful within me.
But I don't tremble in seeing my weakness:
The treasures of a mother belong to her child,
And I am your child, O my dearest Mother.
Aren't your virtues and your love mine too?
So when the white Host comes into my heart,
Jesus, your Sweet Lamb, thinks he is resting in you!...*
