Come to the Feast

Once we hit August, we feel the end of summer coming on. We spend the last days hurrying to relax and, until this year, we are planning our last get-aways before school starts, fall is upon us and then the winter months arrive. After a few weeks of preaching in parables at the lake, Jesus moves on also. He particularly wants to get away by himself after he learns of the death of John the Baptist. However, the crowds followed him and today we hear about how he fed 5,000 people in the miracle of the loaves and fishes. To quote our gathering song today:

"Like the child whose fishes and loaves fed the multitude, in the Lord the little we have, broken and shared, becomes abundant food."

Come to the Feast by Bob Hurd ©1994

Let us pray to be Christ-like in our selflessness and compassion.

Some of you have asked about the yearly farmers' market. We have many growers and buyers out there. We will have a table in the narthex set up to bring and buy produce. Please try to maintain social distancing when doing this. Remember paying is by donation and all proceeds go to help with what the church might need.

In order to keep us all safe from the coronavirus, please continue to wear masks while in the church. Also practice social distancing. In this way, we are showing our love and concern for our parish family. Disposable masks are available in the narthex.

We have a new way to access our St. Ann's bulletin online. Go to IHM's main page (ihmgjt.org). In the blue band at the top of the page is a link to St. Ann's in the right hand corner. If you click on that you will bring up our "page". Scroll down past the map and you will have access to click on the bulletin.

Gratitude Corner:

To Father Isaac for stopping by to celebrate Tuesday Mass with us "on his way to Walsenburg".

Today's Mass is offered for Regina Higdon by Linda Hall. Tuesday's Mass will be celebrated for Mary Graham by Chuck & Kelly Mattson.

Please join us next Friday, August 7, at noon, for adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Counters: If you have been a counter in the past and are comfortable coming to Mass on Sundays, please volunteer to help count the offering after Mass. This task has fallen to the same people for many weeks. Thanks to Darius, Fred, Ron and Gina for continuing to help out.

Copies of Fr. Plough's final Plough Shares are available at IHM. The first one is free. After that, he asked that a $10 donation be made to Catholic Outreach.

After Mass coffee drinkers: Please sign up to host the coffee hour. All you have to do is make the coffee and set out paper cups.

We have received guidelines regarding how to safely bring Holy Communion to our shut-ins. We have 4 parishioners who will be visiting those people on a weekly basis. If you think of people who are not able to get out to Mass, please let Jill know. We will arrange visits to them.

If you need any help at all, please call Jill. She will put you in touch with someone.

If you have anything for the bulletin, please contact Jill, 464-7740 or shoediva.palisade@gmail.com
