Meditation

Treasures

Today's parables highlight the kingdom of heaven as the only thing worth possessing and open for us the choice to take it or not. It is open to everyone, and we must follow Jesus or we will not make it. Like Solomon, we need discerning judgement of what is good and evil. God will grant this gift if we ask for it so that we may follow the way of the Lord. God's entire storeroom holds treasures to help us. Do you seek and use them?

In order to keep us all safe from the coronavirus, please continue to wear masks while in the church. Also practice social distancing. In this way, we are showing our love and concern for our parish family. Disposable masks are available in the narthex.

We have a new way to access our St. Ann's bulletin online. Go to IHM's main page (ihmgjt.org). In the blue band at the top of the page is a link to St. Ann's in the right hand corner. If you click on that you will bring up our "page". Scroll down past the map and you will have access to click on the bulletin.

If you have anything for the bulletin, please contact Jill, 464-7740 or shoediva.palisade@gmail.com
If you need any help at all, please call Jill. She will put you in touch with someone.

Gratitude Corner:

To Diana McDermott and her daughter, Cindy, for the beautiful new banners behind the altar.

Today is also the feast day of St. Ann, our church's patron saint, and her husband, Joachim. It is also the 106 anniversary of St. Ann's Church.

Today's Mass is offered for Pat McComsey by Art McComsey.

Thanks to Mary Beth for this thought (continued):

If you would like to talk to God, you are welcome to arrive early before Mass, find a quiet place and talk to him. Or come to Adoration on the first Friday of each month. If you would like to see God, send Him a text when you are driving.

Copies of Fr. Plough's final Plough Shares are available at IHM. The first one is free. After that, he asked that a $10 donation be made to Catholic Outreach.

After Mass coffee drinkers: Please sign up to host the coffee hour. All you have to do is make the coffee and set out paper cups.

We have received guidelines regarding how to safely bring Holy Communion to our shut-ins. We have 4 parishioners who will be visiting those people on a weekly basis. If you think of people who are not able to get out to Mass, please let Jill know. We will arrange visits to them.

If you have not made your yearly pledge to the DMF, please do so. Our pledge amount stands at about $9000 with $7310 paid. Our goal this year is $14215.
