Meditation

Glory to Death

Glory is temporary. Christ enters Jerusalem to cries of "Hosanna!" Only five days later many of the same crowd is crying, "Crucify him! Crucify him!" Their changeable attitude contrasts with Christ's, because he remains faithful, humble, "obedient to death, even death on a cross". Even though he was beaten, insulted and spit upon, Jesus knows that he will "not be put to shame". United to him, neither will we, because it is in his Passion that we will find forgiveness of our sins, and the strength to rise above persecution, injustice and suffering.
