

Summer Reading 2020

Grade 7

The purpose of the summer reading program is to encourage the enjoyment of reading and the development of independent reading skills. Summer is a time of fun, exploration and growth; it is a perfect time to read. It is our hope at St. Michael that each of you will become lifelong readers. Students entering sixth, seventh and eighth grades are required to read two books during the summer. Of the two required books, one must be chosen from the Reading List attached.

Students in Grade 7 will be required to read two books.

1. The Girl Who Drank The Moon by Kelly Barnhill. Complete the questions on the following page.
2. Free Choice. Choose a book from the Reading List attached. Complete the corresponding assignment.

Several of the books on the Reading List are some of the students' favorites. Feel free to read more than one from the list. The reading and corresponding assignments will be collected on the first day of school. Enjoy your time reading this summer!

Grade Seven Summer Reading List

The Crossover by Kwame Alexander - Twelve year old Josh Bell and his twin brother Jordan are awesome on the court. But Josh has more than basketball in his blood, he's got mad beats, too, that tell his family's story in verse. Josh and Jordan must come to grips with growing up on and off the court to realize breaking the rules comes at a terrible price, as their story's heart-stopping climax proves a game-changer for the entire family.

Chasing Lincoln's Killer by James Swanson- Recounts the twelve-day pursuit and capture of John Wilkes Booth, covering the chase through Washington D.C., Maryland, and Virginia, with a discussion of Abraham Lincoln as a father, husband, and friend that examines the impact of his death on those close to him.

Powerless by Cody Matthew- Daniel Corrigan and his parents have just moved to Noble's Green, Pennsylvania, when Daniel (who's a big fan of Sherlock Holmes and therefore a careful observer) notices something odd about his neighbor Mollie and her friends. While they may look like ordinary kids, all of them have superhuman abilities that they use to keep the town safe.

Rules by Cynthia Lord- Frustrated at life with an autistic brother, twelve-year-old Catherine longs for a normal existence but her world is further complicated by a friendship with an young paraplegic.

Unstoppable by Tim Green- Winners never give up. If anyone understands the phrase "tough luck," it's Harrison. As a foster kid in a cruel home, he knows his dream of one day playing for the NFL is a long shot. Then Harrison's luck seems to change. He is brought into a new home with kind, loving parents—his new dad is even a football coach. In no time, he's practically unstoppable. But Harrison's good luck can't last forever.

The Hitchhiker's Guide To The Galaxy by Douglas Adams- The hilarious journey of Arthur Dent and his friend Ford Prefect, who escape from Earth seconds before it is demolished and travel to a variety of galactic civilizations while gathering information for a hitchhiker's guidebook.

Chains by Laurie Halse Anderson- Sold as a slave to an influential New York Tory family, 13-year-old Isabel spies for the patriot side during the American Revolution in a desperate hope to gain freedom for herself and her 5-year-old sister.

Hello Universe by Erin Entrada Kelly, illustrated by Isabel Roxas- A diverse group of children come together when a prank puts one of the kids and a guinea pig at the bottom of a well. Four different voices narrate the story of middle schoolers pooling their strengths and cooperating to make things right.

Treasure Island by Robert Louis Stevenson- It is safe to say that the characters in this book are not all virtuous, hard working and self-sacrificing, but it is loads of fun. Youngster Jim goes to look for treasure and gets mixed-up with pirates like the ruthless Long John Silver.

I Am Malala by Malala Yousafzai - She was only ten years old when the Taliban took control of her region. They said music was a crime. They said women weren't allowed to go to the market. They said girls couldn't go to school. Malala was taught to stand up for what she believes. On October 9, 2012, she nearly lost her life for the cause: She was shot point-blank while riding the bus on her way home from school. No one expected her to survive.

Savvy by Ingrid Law- Thirteen is when a Beaumont's savvy hits—and with one brother who causes hurricanes and another who creates electricity, Mibs Beaumont is eager to see what she gets. But just before the big day, Poppa is in a terrible accident. After this extraordinary adventure—full of talking tattoos and a kidnapping—not a soul on board will ever be the same.

The Maze Runner by James Dashner (read any book in the series)- When Thomas wakes up in the lift, the only thing he can remember is his name. He's surrounded by strangers—boys whose memories are also gone. Outside the towering stone walls that surround them is a limitless, ever-changing maze. It's the only way out—and no one's ever made it through alive.

The Girl Who Threw Butterflies by Mick Cochrane- Molly and her father shared a love of baseball. Tired of girl's softball, passionate about the real thing Molly decides to try out for varsity men's baseball. This is the story of how she gains the confidence to play ball, earns the respect of the team, and applies lessons of the game to life.

The Rocket Boys by Homer Hickam- This memoir by a NASA scientist is now better known as the movie "October Sky." Homer Hickam grew up in a West Virginia coal mining town but had his sights set somewhere else. His one hope to escape the mines rests on winning a college scholarship at a national science fair competition with his rocketry project. It is amazing how courage, creativity, and determination can sometimes beat impossible odds.

Touching Spirit Bear by Ben Mikaelson- Cole Matthews is an angry and defiant young man. Because of his violent crime against another 9th grader, he is facing a prison sentence. But then a Tlingit Indian parole officer named Garvey offers him The Circle Justice, based on Native American traditions, in which victim, offender, and community all work together to find a healing solution. He takes the offer and thinks that he can somewhat “wiggle” out of his punishment. When Cole challenges the giant White Bear and is mauled almost to death, Cole awaits his fate and begins the transition from anger to humility.

Counting by 7s by Holly Goldberg Sloan- Willow Chance is a 12-year-old genius, obsessed with nature and diagnosing medical conditions, who finds it comforting to count by 7s. Willow's world is tragically changed when her parents both die in a car crash, leaving her alone in a baffling world. Willow manages to push through her grief to discover and unite a fascinatingly diverse and fully believable surrogate family.

Mockingbird by Kathryn Erskine-In Caitlin's world, everything is black or white. Things are good or bad. Anything in between is confusing. That's the stuff Caitlin's older brother, Devon, has always explained. But now Devon's dead and Dad is no help at all. Caitlin wants to get over it, but as an eleven-year-old girl with Asperger's, she doesn't know how. When she reads the definition of closure, she realizes that is what she needs. In her search for it, Caitlin discovers that not everything is black and white—the world is full of colors—messy and beautiful. Kathryn Erskine has written a must-read gem, one of the most moving novels of the year.

Murder on the Orient Express by Agatha Christie-On a three-day journey through the snowbound Balkan hills, Hercule Poirot must weed through an array of international suspects to find the passenger who murdered a gangster on the Orient Express.

Longbow Girl by Linda Davies- A stunningly exciting and dramatic story set in the wilds of the Welsh mountains, where the brave and beautiful Merry Owen, the Longbow Girl, travels back in time to the autocratic kingdom of King Henry VIII to save her ancestors.

The Wednesday Wars by Gary Schmidt-Holling Hoodhood is attending seventh grade in the late 1960s. While the Vietnam War consumes his father's attention, Holling is locked into Wednesday lessons with a teacher who insists he read the plays of Shakespeare. This Newbery Award-winning book gets high marks for wit and making a complex sociopolitical era accessible for present-day middle schoolers.

Paperboy by Vince Vawter-Little Man is an amazing ball player, but he can barely say a word—not even his own name—without stuttering. So when he takes over his best friend's paper route for the month of July, Little Man's not exactly looking forward to interacting with the customers. This book changed the way I understood stuttering. The author is a stutterer and, because of that, we get the full experience of what it feels like to be unable to speak words as easily as others.

Name _____ Grade 7

Answer the questions based on your free choice book. Make sure to list the page number for each piece of evidence.

Title	Author
What is the setting of the novel? Where and when does the story take place?	Cite evidence from the novel to show the setting.
What kind of person is the main character? List at least three adjectives to describe him or her.	Cite evidence to support the main character's qualities.

What do you think is the overall theme of this novel? What is its general message?

Cite two pieces of evidence to support your answer.

The Girl Who Drank The Moon

Kelly Barnhill

The story is written like a classic fairytale. Although, it has even more twist and turns and suspense, a complicated plot, and contains some challenging vocabulary. It is thrilling and magical in every sense of the word. It is a tale of love and family; of grief and loyalty; of love and forgiveness; good and evil; strength and weakness. Attached is a list of vocabulary. Review the words before you read each section to help you better understand the novel.

In sixth grade we discussed character traits, both direct and indirect. Answer the questions attached based on the descriptions and details that the author uses to describe the characters. Be specific and answer in complete sentences when necessary. If you choose to type your answers, make sure you type the questions as well.

Enjoy reading. I hope you like this book as much as I do.

The Girl Who Drank The Moon Kelly Barnhill

Vocabulary

Chapters 1-4

1. populace - people living in a particular area
2. protectorate - an area under the control of someone/something
3. perks - benefits; bonuses
4. insufferable - too extreme to bear; intolerable
5. guttural - husky; gruff; throaty
6. contemplation - inspection; observation
7. implacable - unforgiving; unyielding
8. decrepit - feeble; weak; frail
9. unencumbered - without any burdens

Chapters 5-8

10. unabated - constant; without reduction
11. protestations - declarations that something is untrue
12. sumptuous - expensive looking; lavish
13. inconsequential - not important; minor; measly
14. imperious - lordly, assertive, bossy, haughty
15. fawning - exaggerated flattery or affection
16. undulation - moved in a wave-like motion

Chapters 9-13

17. enmagicked - made to be magic; became magic
18. stasis - a period of inactivity
19. insinuations - implications; hints; suggestions
20. confound - astonish; surprise
25. reckoning - calculating; estimating; computing

Chapters 14-18

26. inexorable - relentless, inevitable, unstoppable
27. terse - brief; short; succinct; concise
28. accretion - accumulation; growth; increase
29. obfuscate - unclear; unintelligible

Chapters 19-24

- 30. tenacious - unshakable; strong; powerful
- 31. vouch - confirm; testify to; swear to
- 32. intricate - complicated; detailed
- 33. wayward - stubborn; willful; headstrong
- 34. convoluted - complicated; complex
- 35. succumb - yield; submit; surrender

Chapters 25-31

- 36. gaunt - thin; scrawny; bony
- 37. complied - obeyed; followed; submitted to
- 38. impede - interfere with; hinder; obstruct
- 39. envelop - surround; encircle; wrap up
- 40. duplicity - deceitfulness; deception

Chapters 32-36

- 41. porous - full of holes; permeable
- 43. peevishly - easily irritated; sullenly; badly tempered
- 44. insolent - rude; poorly mannered
- 45. modicum - a speck; very small amount

Chapters 37-42

- 46. copious - abundant; a large amount
- 47. maimed - injured; permanently damaged
- 48. atrocities - wicked or cruel acts; abusive behaviors
- 49. ambulate - move; walk around
- 50. converge - come together; meet

Chapters 43-48

- 51. desiccate - remove moisture from something
- 52. adversaries - enemies; competitors
- 53. skeptical - having doubts; doubtful
- 54. depleting - consuming; reducing; cutting back
- 55. languished - suffered; wasted away; abandoned

Use your knowledge about the characters and the text to answer the following questions:

1. Describe Zan's physical traits and personality. Cite one piece of evidence from the text that supports your description of her personality. Do not forget to use quotation marks and cite the page number.

2. Pick three adjectives or short phrases to describe Glerk and Fyrian.

Glerk

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Fyrian

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

