BULLETIN BITES!

"Blessed are you . . ."

The passive tone of the beatitudes in the Sermon on the Mount in St. Matthew's Gospel must be read in concert with the mandate to act in St. Luke's version of the same event in his Sermon on the Plain. Rev. Abuna Elias Chacour is a Melkite Catholic priest who was born in Biram in Galilee (northern part of Israel). His family and fellow villagers were forced off of their land and out of their homes by the Israelis. He speaks Aramaic, the language that Jesus spoke. He translates the Beatitudes in a more pro-active way. He proposes that Jesus meant: "You who are poor - who seek justice - peacemakers - get up, go ahead, do something, about your poverty—justice - peace - and you will be blessed." Complacency and timidity about our condition in life and our world is not a blessing. But blessed are those who act to benefit themselves and others. So let us get up, go ahead, do something to make life better for ourselves and others.

We would like to thank our church family of St. Francis and St. Ambrose for the love and support you gave to us during the loss of our mother and grandmother. Thank you to all those who brought food and helped serve at the bereavement dinner. A special thanks to the craft club ladies for helping in the kitchen. Thank you to Diane Henshaw for your care and compassion as moms Hospice Nurse. Thank you to Michelle Crider for the beautiful music at the funeral mass! We are so blessed to have you! Over these last several years many of you have shown your love and concern for our mother and offered many prayers on her behalf and for this we are grateful. We cannot thank you enough for how much you have blessed our family. We love each and every one of you!

Blessings to you all,

Scott, Tina, Clay, Hayden and Justinne Moore
 Carol, Mark, Jonathan and Ethan Martin
 Randy and Vicky Moore and Gracie
