May 31 | Pentecost Sunday

John 20:19-23: In John’s Gospel the disciples are hiding behind locked doors because of fear of their enemies. When Jesus comes, they are calmed. He gives them the power to give peace to others by forgiving their sins.

- The Holy Spirit is like the wind. Wind changes things. What needs changing — in you, in your family, in the world?
- Write a family prayer to the Holy Spirit asking for the courage to make changes.
- What do you think Jesus is sending you to do at this time in your life?
- Pentecost has been called the birthday of the Church. How do you think we should celebrate it?
- When have you felt God’s spirit calling you to make a difference in someone else’s life, bringing God’s love to them?

How would you describe a Pentecost person?

How can you be one?
