

The Diocese of Knoxville

To: Diocesan Employees

From: The Office of Human Resources

RE: Unemployment Compensation

As you may know, churches and religious institutions are not subject to the unemployment insurance law and therefore do not pay unemployment insurance premiums or taxes. Consequently, our employees cannot draw unemployment benefits if they leave our employ.