Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Volume 45 – Number 35

“God forbid, Lord!” (Matthew 16:22)

What a stunning reversal! You don’t confess someone as “the Son of the living God” and then turn around and scold them (Matthew 16:16)! What could have triggered such a strong reaction from Peter? The news that Jesus was going to “suffer greatly . . . and be killed” by Jerusalem’s religious leaders (16:21).

Of course, Peter had the purest of intentions when he rebuked Jesus; he couldn’t bear the thought of his beloved Master and friend suffering such a horrible fate.

But there may also have been a deeper motive in Peter’s actions. Perhaps he was eager to preserve Jesus’ image as an untouchable miracle worker so that he could be safe too. If he could keep Jesus from the cross, he wouldn’t have to face his own cross.

Peter had been with Jesus long enough to see that being a disciple meant risking people’s scorn and misunderstanding. It meant pouring out his life to God for the sake of the people around him. If Jesus was destined for the cross, then Peter might have to accept a similar fate. Better to shield Jesus from harm so that he could shield himself as well.

But Jesus would have none of it. So he told Peter that anyone who wanted to become like him had to take up his cross and follow in his footsteps (Matthew 16:24). It’s tempting to keep Jesus at arm’s length so that he can’t get too close and ask too much of us. Jesus made it very clear: there is a cost to discipleship. It’s not always easy to follow the Lord and obey his commandments. But the glory of knowing Jesus’ love and the joy of sharing his mercy with people far outweigh any sacrifice we might have to make. Peter ultimately learned this, and so can we.

So take up your cross today. Try your best to follow in Jesus’ path of self-giving love.

“Lord, I don’t want to keep you at a distance. Teach me how to give of myself as you did.”

LETTER SENT TO YOUTH FORMATION PARENTS:

“Dear Parents,

I will begin by saying “thank-you” for your patience with us during this time of uncertainty. I have not forgotten about all of you and your children. You all have been in my thoughts and prayers, as I was allowing you time to adjust to this new school year. We are praying that this year is off to a great start.

We have decided to delay the start of Youth Formation until October. This later date will help the Youth Formation Mentors get better prepared. At this time, we are exploring the ideas of in-home lessons and on-site once a month lessons. We are looking for the safest and most beneficial way for our students and their families.

We encourage you to register your child/children. Registration forms can be found on our new, beautiful website www.stcharlesthobodaux.org or at the Administration Office and in the church foyer. Registering your child will assist us in getting you the latest information as we move forward together.

Please, if you have any questions or concerns, don’t hesitate to give us a call.”

Hurricane Season Prayer

Spare us, good Lord.

O Almighty and Eternal God, who sees us surrounded by so many dangers and challenges, grant in your infinite goodness your protection over us during this hurricane season. Give continued healing to those still suffering from past storms, wisdom to those who lead our communities and a spirit of generosity toward neighbor where sacrifice is needed. We ask this through Christ our Lord, who is our constant help and protector, now and forevermore. Amen!

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, pray for us!

QUOTE:

“Each person is someone to love the way God loves us, despite all our warts.”
