“Humbly regard others as more important than yourselves.” (Philippians 2:3)

From the fall of our first parents to the most recent family squabble, the world has held onto one philosophy when it comes to relationships: make sure you get your way, no matter what. Stand your ground. Even if you discover you were wrong, don't give in. Do not submit.

How different is the way of the Lord! Take today's second reading. St. Paul tells us that Jesus didn't demand that we submit to him. Instead, he submitted to us. He who is Lord of all took "the form of a slave," pouring himself out in miracles of healing and deliverance (Philippians 2:7). He who is the wisdom of God patiently taught the way of forgiveness and holiness. And he who is pure and undefiled stooped to wash dirty, dusty feet.

And in his final act of submission, he offered no resistance when we mocked him, beat him, and crucified him. Not because he was weak, but because he was strong. Not because he had lost, but because he knew that this was the way to win. And God proved him right. Because Jesus chose humility over pride and service over force, his Father raised him up and exalted him as Lord.

Jesus didn't come to win an argument; he came to win our hearts. By humbling himself like this, he showed that his love is real, solid, and eternal. Now he asks us to follow his example. Just as he came not to be served but to serve, he asks us to serve each other. He asks us to win each other's hearts rather than try to break each other's wills.

This isn't always easy. Sometimes it means caring for a fussy in-law, cooperating with an unhappy coworker, or cleaning your teenager's bedroom—again. Neither is it always successful. There's no guarantee that you will win the other person's heart. But you will be pleasing Jesus, and that is its own reward.

“Lord, teach me how to become a servant after your own heart.”

BIBLE VERSE OF THIS WEEK:

"Humbly regard others as more important than yourselves." (Philippians 2:3)

Your Word

*Your Word is a lamp to guide me along;
To light up my path so not to go wrong*

*Your Word is food that nourishes my soul
Knowledge for life that can make me whole*

*Your Word is a seed that grows deep within
Which guides me to good, as well as recognize sin*

*Your Word is rain that helps water my seed
To cultivate my senses so your Word I may heed*

*Your Word's like a sword that helps me defend
The evil around me that Satan's forces send*

*Your Word is like honey like bees I cling to
With hopes of one day being united with You*

*Your Word is true love that offers mercy to all
For sinners like me who have a tendency to fall*

*Your Word is comfort with the promises You give
As I offer my trust each day that I live*

*Your Word is hope to all humans on earth
As we yearn for a time of a cleansing rebirth*

*May I always understand them and hear what they say
As I put them in action in my life each day*

Prayer to My Guardian Angel

Angel of God, my Guardian dear, to whom His love commits me here, Ever this day be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide. Amen.

"Angel of God" is a Roman Catholic traditional prayer for the intercession of the guardian angel, often taught to young children as the first prayer learned. It serves as a reminder of God's love, and by enjoining the guardian angel to support the child in a loving way, the prayer echoes

God's abiding love. October 2nd is the Feast Day of The Holy Guardian Angels!

Hurricane Season Prayer

*"During this hurricane season we turn to you, God our Father. We humbly ask that you suppress the winds of all threatening systems, just as you calmed the sea for your disciples. Your might is vastly greater than even the strongest storm. If it be your will, may it stray to open waters where it can dissipate without harm. Chase it from every shore and spare every life in its path. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen." Our Lady of Prompt Succor, pray for us!

QUOTE:

"Always be thankful for the bad things in life. They open your eyes to see the good things you weren't paying attention to before."
