Fourth Sunday of Advent

Volume 45 – Number 51

---

Dear Friends,

This past year has been difficult for our world and personally for each one of us. With the Corona Virus pandemic threatening our livelihood, the many storms which affected the gulf coast this past hurricane season and our own personal difficulties, many people may be experiencing a period of darkness or depression. Our hearts long for hope and healing for ourselves and our world. This Season of Christmas and our faith gives us the reason to hope. In the incarnation our God becomes human in Jesus and brings forth our salvation. This Christmas we are invited to again renew our faith and give thanks for God's tremendous love.

For many of you the celebration of Christmas will look different because family gatherings may be smaller than in the past and so our Mass schedule will be different as well. We have added some masses, in order to give those who want to celebrate the opportunity to do so, and we will live stream Mass on our Facebook Page.

Our Mass Schedule is:

*Vigil Mass: Thursday, December 24, 3:00 PM, 5:00 PM (Live Streamed on Facebook) and 7:00 PM

Christmas Day: Friday, December 25, 7:30 AM and 9:30 AM (Live Streamed on Facebook)

*If you usually attend the early Vigil Mass at Christmas, I ask you to consider one of the other Masses due to our limited seating capacity because of social distancing regulations.

I pray that during this Christmas Season the Gift of the Incarnation bring you hope and peace. On behalf of Fr. Glenn, Deacon Brent, the Staff of St. Charles Borromeo Church and myself we wish you and your family a Joyful Christmas and a Happy New Year.

In Christ,

Rev. Carl P. Collins
