The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ
Volume 46 – Number 23

“All that the Lord has said, we will heed and do.”
(Exodus 24:7)

When Moses splashed blood of sacrificed animals on the altar and then on the people, he was sealing a covenant between them and God. And just like any other sacred agreement, something was required of both parties. For his part, God was promising to bless the Israelites and take them as his own “treasured possession” (Exodus 19:5). For their part, the people were promising to worship him and obey his commandments (24:7).

Centuries later, when Jesus shed his blood on the cross, he established a new covenant with us (Mark 14:24). For his part, he promised to cleanse us of sin “once for all” (Hebrews 9:12). He also poured out his Spirit, who would write his law on our hearts rather than on tablets of stone (8:10; Jeremiah 31:31-34). For our part, he asks us to follow his commandments, seek his forgiveness when we stray, and reflect his love and mercy to the people around us.

This means that you are not just a passive recipient of this precious covenant; rather, you have a part to play in upholding it. Of course, God doesn’t expect you to do it on your own. He has given you his Holy Spirit and all the grace you need to be faithful to him.

Today is the feast of Corpus Christi. As you receive Jesus in Holy Communion today, take the opportunity to actively affirm the covenant God has made with you. Just as he renews his covenant with you every time you receive the Eucharist, you can renew your love and commitment to him. Tell him how grateful you are that he has bound himself to you in an unconditional, irrevocable bond of love. Then open your heart to his grace and let it strengthen your determination to love and serve him all the days of your life.

“Father, thank you for the covenant love you show me in the Eucharist.”

Gratitude Expressed:

“Dear Parishioners of St. Charles Borromeo Parish,

On behalf of the clients and staff of Assisi Bridge House, I want to personally thank you all for selecting Assisi Bridge House for your Lenten project. It was an honor and a blessing to receive the supplies donated to us. These supplies are used on a regular basis by men who are working to make important changes in their lives.

Addiction is a cunning, powerful and baffling disease, but it is treatable. It requires hard work and a willingness to make changes. At Assisi Bridge House, we offer long-term residential treatment to assist men in building a foundation for their futures. It takes time to start their new lives in recovery. Our program offers 4 to 6 months of structured treatment, including a full schedule of group and individual counseling sessions, 12 step meetings, exercise, step work, individualized treatment plans, service work, optional sober living aftercare and more to set the foundation for a balanced lifestyle. We also offer family sessions for those who want to support their loved ones who are in treatment with us.

Assisi Bridge House, one of the many programs of Catholic Charities, exists to serve the men in our community and the surrounding area and their families. If you need our services for anyone in your life, please call us at 985-872-5529 or email us at abh@htdiocese.org and we will be glad to be of help. Thanks to each and every one of you for touching the lives of the clients of Assisi Bridge House. God bless you all and please keep Assisi Bridge House clients and staff in your prayers.”

(Signed - Sincerely, Monique V. Albarado, LPC (Director of Assisi Bridge House, Schriever, La.)

Hurricane Season Prayer

O Heavenly Father, all the elements of nature obey Your commands, including hurricanes. Calm the storms that threaten us and turn our fear of Your power into praise of Your goodness. Grant this through Our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

QUOTE:

“Ask Him to renew your heart, so that when people see you, they know God dwells within you.”
