Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Volume 46 – Number 25

“Who shut within doors the sea . . . and said:

Thus far shall you come but no farther!” (Job 38:1, 11)

If you’ve ever been to a beach, you’ve probably seen children trying to build sand castles near the shoreline. They work hard piling up buckets of sand, sometimes making quite an impressive structure. But no matter what they do, the tide still comes in and their sandy structure is washed away.

That might be how the disciples felt as they tried to ride out the storm in today’s Gospel. Seasoned fishermen, they tried to adapt to the strong winds and high seas. But no matter what they did, they couldn’t make the storm go away. Then something drastically changed their situation: the One who “shut within doors the sea”—Jesus—rebuked the wind and calmed the storm (Job 38:1; Mark 4:39).

The disciples learned a lesson that day similar to the one God taught Job. When we rely only on our own strength or understanding, we human beings can do only so much, but Jesus’ power is limitless.

While Jesus does have dominion over all creation, that doesn’t have to make us feel unimportant and it doesn’t have to make God seem like an indifferent almighty force. Instead, this reality should give us hope. Why? Because in the storms of our lives, when the “seas” seem out of control and our insufficiency is painfully clear, he is in the boat with us! He is not aloof; he cares for each one of us. He is concerned about every one of our circumstances.

Does that mean every storm we face will be calmed? Not necessarily. Sometimes Jesus calms the storms and sometimes he calms us. Either way, we can rely on the fact that this all-powerful God is right there “in the boat” with us. And that can give us peace and help us through the hard times.

“Jesus, I trust that you are with me.

May that knowledge give me peace no matter what storms I face.”

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION – JUNE 26-27, 2021

Next week we will have the Peter's Pence Collection, which is a way to support the Universal Church and the work of the Holy See, including helping Pope Francis with the funds to carry out his charitable works. These works benefit our brothers and sisters on the margins of society, including victims of war, oppression, and disasters. Please be generous. For more information, you can visit www.peterspence.va/en.html

PLEASE NOTE: During the summer months, many of our parishioners take vacations and are sometimes away from the parish over the weekends. Please remember your church parish by sending your church support either before or after your trip. This thoughtful consideration on your part is greatly appreciated, as it helps us to maintain our budget during the months when electricity bills are at their highest. May God bless you for being a faithful steward!
