Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Volume 46 – Number 26

“He became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich.”

(2 Corinthians 8:9)

If you’ve ever pondered what heaven might be like, you may have thought of a summer day: the bloom of the flowers, the warmth of the sun, God’s creation bursting with life. Who would ever want to leave such a beautiful place? And yet this is what Jesus did when he left heaven to come and save us.

St. Paul explains why Jesus made such a sacrifice: “So that by his poverty you might become rich” (2 Corinthians 8:9). Jesus took on the “poverty” of our human limitations so that we could inherit the richness of eternal life. He entered so fully into our poverty, in fact, that he endured death—all so that we could live forever.

Now, because of Jesus’ sacrifice, you can receive his riches every single day. But how? Today’s Gospel shows us the way. Both Jairus and the hemorrhaging woman knew they were in desperate circumstances and that they needed the healing that only Jesus could provide. Similarly, when we acknowledge our spiritual poverty, we open our hearts to receive Jesus’ riches.

So confess your weaknesses and your sins to the Lord. Acknowledge the temptations that always seem to trip you up. Tell Jesus that you need him.

Yet Jairus and the hemorrhaging woman didn’t just admit their poverty. They also believed in the riches of Jesus’ love. Their faith opened a way for his divine power to flow. Likewise, when you confess your neediness to the Lord, you can be confident that he will fill you—not with material wealth, but with the riches of his presence, his forgiveness, and his wisdom.

Jesus’ poverty has won you untold riches—riches that are available to you in a special way in Holy Communion. So come to him in poverty and humility and faith. Come and let him fill you.

“Lord, thank you for becoming poor to make me rich! Thank you, Jesus, for your love!”

Today is the Peter's Pence Collection, a worldwide collection that supports the work of the Universal Church, including the work of the Holy See and the charitable works of Pope Francis. Take this opportunity to join with Pope Francis and be a sign of mercy to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please be generous today. For more information, you can visit www.peterspence.va/en.html

PLEASE NOTE: During the summer months, many of our parishioners take vacations and are sometimes away from the parish over the weekends. Please remember your church parish by sending your church offering either before or after your trip. This thoughtful consideration on your part is greatly appreciated, as it helps us to maintain our budget during the months when electricity bills are at their highest. May God bless you for being a faithful steward!

HURRICANE SEASON PRAYER

"During this hurricane season we turn to you, God our Father. We humbly ask that you suppress the winds of all threatening systems, just as you calmed the sea for your disciples. Your might is vastly greater than even the strongest storm. If it be your will, may it stray to open waters where it can dissipate without harm. Chase it from every shore and spare every life in its path. We ask this through Christ Our Lord. Amen."

QUOTE:

"Love what you have before life teaches you to love what you lost."
