NATIONAL DAY OF REMEMBRANCE
FOR VICTIMS OF ABORTION PRAYER SERVICE

Saturday, September 18, 11:00AM
TRINITY HEIGHTS QUEEN OF PEACE
Join us in prayer as we honor the memory of the more than 60 million unborn victims of abortion.

THE EVANGELIZATION COMMITTEE will have religious items and pamphlets left over from the Fair available on a table during the All Saints Parish Dinner on September 12. We encourage you to take some to give away to family, friends, or even strangers as this can open the door for a brief conversation about life and faith.

THE ST. JOSEPH STATUE vandalized earlier this summer is in the process of being replaced with the statue that formerly graced the front of the old St. Joseph School building and has recently been in the lobby of Gehlen Catholic School. The statue is being prepared for outdoor use and a suitable platform being designed. We hope for installation in October. Approximate cost is $8,000. Donations are welcome.

WATCH YOUR MAIL this week for the important Together As One Diocesan Appeal information. We had a great campaign last year, thanks to your generosity, netting $91,078. Our parish goal is $51,449 this year; so it is easily do-able. Remember part of the goal and everything over the goal comes back to the parish, so it is a great boost to parish income. Consider using 1% of your income as a benchmark to determine your gift.
