We will stand (or bring a chair and sit) along Plymouth Street from 1:00-2:30 PM, quietly praying and holding signs to raise awareness in protection of the unborn. Signs are available at 129 Plymouth St. NW in Le Mars or feel free to make your own. Lord Jesus, please protect and save the unborn!

We served 712 dinners (352 dine-in and 360 take-out), sold nearly 300 apple pies, and the County Store brought in approximately $2,500. A BIG thank-you to the outstanding volunteers who made this all possible: those young and not-so-young, who helped make the pies, those who assisted in set-up, those who worked on Sunday, brought desserts, provided corn and contributed items for the Country Store and Silent Auction, those who sold tickets and all the other parishioners, friends and neighbors who attended and supported this project. _Anyone who has not yet turned in money for tickets, please do so ASAP!_

We Appreciate volunteers who bring treats for the RE students. See sign-up in entry if you are willing/able to do so. THANKS!!
