Family of Faith 2021-2022
Week 2, Late Session

On each of the following days, children and at least one parent attend together for Family of Faith lessons. Please bring your Family of Faith Parent Guide and Activity Book for each session. We will gather in Richter Hall for the first meeting in October to before showing each family group to their designated meeting area, and then you will go to your group’s designated meeting area the following months. Parents are asked to read the background reading for each month before coming to that month’s session. Page numbers for the background reading in the Parent’s Guide are provided below.
