PRINCIPALS' WEEKLY MASS ANNOUNCEMENT

Thanksgiving...

I am thankful to be here today with all of you, and I am thankful that we can be here together.

A week from now, we will be entering our traditional holiday season. We pause, with those we love, and build memories which we will revisit throughout our lives.

If we were able to plan ahead of time, we would try to create the best memories possible.

Those who love you want those good memories for you.

You can help them.

First, be positive, let them always remember your smiling face.

Second, be helpful.

Do what you can to assist those you love, and allow them some time to enjoy the moment with you.

Finally, give thanks, because we have so much to be thankful for.
