

PRINCIPAL'S WEEKLY MASS ANNOUNCEMENT

Practice...

You are all here practicing for your real life in the future.

Yes, you are learning and growing, but I assure you, you are practicing to become the person you will be.

As you are learning, you will make mistakes, which is a part of learning.

You make decisions, and take actions, each and every day.

If you focus, work hard and make the correct decisions, life holds rewards, now, and in the future.

If you do not, life can and will hold you accountable.

Every day I bear witness to both, success and accountability.

Who do you want to become?
