

MRS. LYNCH'S WEEKLY MASS ANNOUNCEMENT

What is it that you dream about?

What is it that you want to be?

When you close your eyes, where does your journey take you?

You are moving towards your future, here, today, with us.

Learn as much as you can, about all that you can.

A knowledgeable mind is the most important thing you will take with you on your journey.

This knowledge will be the light that shows you the way to where you want to be, to become who you want to be.

And that is my dream for all of you.
