2021 Archbishop's Appeal - Thank you for your commitment to the Archdiocese of San Antonio and the Archbishop's Appeal for Ministries, Resilient in Faith & Service. We are more than half way through this year's Appeal and, thanks to you, we have had so much participation! (75% of our Parish membership has so far committed.) As in Mark 12:42; "But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins, worth only a few cents"; the widow gave of her only means; but she "Participated" with what little she had. Your participation is important; any amount will help supplement the ministries of the Appeal in the Archdiocese of San Antonio and our Parish community. If you have not already committed to this year's Appeal, please consider doing so this weekend. Envelopes are in the entrance of church and you may drop it in next week's collection basket or mail it directly to the Appeal address on the envelope. God bless you for your prayers, your consideration and for your "PARTICIPATION!" If you have any questions, please contact Trudy Steele in the church office, 830-644-2368; or Judy Petsch, 830-644-2460.
