Mission Appeal Weekend 2nd Collection – This weekend, September 18/19, Sr. Adriana Calzada with the Incarnate Word Sisters will be visiting our masses to share one of the ministries of her order. The goal of the CCVI Youth/Young Adult Project is to help young women and men acquire tools of discernment for their growth in the path of faith and in their social and ecclesial commitment through the discovery of the spirituality of the Incarnation. The Congregation will accompany them in the process of creating and living an integral life project. Through entering into relationships with young people, the Sisters will grow in understanding new styles and forms of expression.” www.amormeus.org
