

PROGRAMME FOR OCTOBER:
Month of the Holy Rosary

October Devotions will be live-streamed on Mondays and Wednesdays during October at 7.00 pm

In addition, the Church is open for personal prayer and adoration on Thursday evening from 6.00 pm until 7.00 pm (you do not need to book in advance, but you will be asked for contact details)

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is live-streamed from the Church on Friday evenings at 7.00 pm

Places can be booked to attend Mass on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 10.00 am

Places can also be booked for the Sunday Masses at 5.30 pm (Vigil), 9.00 am, 11.00 am and 5.00 pm

Please scan the following QR code to access the Reservation system

Alternatively go to the parish website www.sthelenslangside.org.uk and click the link for Mass Reservation.

If you cannot manage to book online yourself (or ask someone to do it on your behalf), you can phone 07561 646339 on a Monday or a Friday between 11.00 am and 1.00 pm. The volunteer answering the phone will make the online booking on your behalf and be able to confirm if your requested place is available. You will be asked for your name and a contact telephone number for track and trace purposes.

Parish Financial Matters

Once again, I would like to express my gratitude to all those who have been generous in supporting Saint Helen's during this difficult time. Once again, I have included our bank details below. In addition, we have a new on-line giving facility which allows you to make an offering quickly and safely – either as a one-off or as a regular payment. Just go to our website (www.sthelenslangside.org.uk) and click on the “on-line giving” button.

Baptisms

We are now able to resume the celebration of Baptism with some restrictions in place. Due to the number of generous volunteers that need to be available to fulfil all the hygiene protocols, the opportunities will be limited at first. Therefore we will have baptisms on every second Saturday at 11.00 am (3rd 17th and 31st October, etc.) A number of these dates have already been booked – if you wish to arrange a baptism, thank you in advance for your understanding.

First Communions

We congratulate the children who received their First Holy Communion at the 10.00 am Mass on Saturday

October Devotions

Thank you to all those who have volunteered to record the Rosary as part of our October Devotions. There's still time for later in the month for anyone who would like to do it. Contact the parish (sthelen@rcag.org.uk).

Living Faith in the age of Covid

The Bishops' Conference have produced the first Pastoral Ministry Newsletter entitled “Living in Faith in the age of Covid 19” which provides useful information and links on supporting your spiritual and mental health during this time. You can find it on the Bishops' Conference website at www.bcos.org.uk or by clicking on the link below (if you are reading the on-line version of the bulletin!)

Saint Helen's SSVP

Our SSVP would like to express their gratitude for the great generosity of the parishioners who have made donations after their recent appeal for funds. Please consider supporting them by making a regular or one-off payment to their bank account. Donations can also be made in cash by placing your donation in an envelope clearly marked SSVP and placing it in the one of the white offertory tubs in the church. SSVP Bank Details as follows:

Account Name: SSVP GLOS 058
Account Number: 00844298
Sort Code: 80-07-76

The next meeting of the Parish Pastoral Council will be on Tuesday 20th October. If you have any suggestions or comments please drop us an e-mail at sthelen@rcag.org.uk

Prayer to Saint Michael

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defence against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen but found bloodshed, integrity, but only a cry of distress.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 79(80):9, 12-16, 19-20

The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

You brought a vine out of Egypt;
to plant it you drove out the nations.
It stretched out its branches to the sea,
to the Great River it stretched out its shoots.

Then why have you broken down its walls?
It is plucked by all who pass by.
It is ravaged by the boar of the forest,
devoured by the beasts of the field.

God of hosts, turn again, we implore,
look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,
the vine your right hand has planted.

And we shall never forsake you again;
give us life that we may call upon your name.

God of hosts, bring us back;
let your face shine on us and we shall be saved.

Second reading

Philippians 4:6-9

There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, fill your minds with everything that is true, everything that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honour, and everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. Keep doing all the things that you learnt from me and have been taught by me and have heard or seen that I do. Then the God of peace will be with you.

Gospel Acclamation

Jn 15:15

Alleluia, alleluia!

I call you friends, says the Lord,
because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 21:33-43

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third. Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them. "They will respect my son" he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance." So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures: It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone. This was the Lord's doing and it is wonderful to see? 'I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

First reading

Isaiah 5:1-7

Let me sing to my friend the song of his love for his vineyard. My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside. He dug the soil, cleared it of stones and planted choice vines in it. In the middle he built a tower, he dug a press there too. He expected it to yield grapes, but sour grapes were all that it gave. And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, I ask you to judge between my vineyard and me. What could I have done for my vineyard that I have not done? I expected it to yield grapes. Why did it yield sour grapes instead? Very well, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard: I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on, and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on. I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug; overgrown by the briar and the thorn. I will command the clouds to rain no rain on it. Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of Hosts is the House of Israel, and the men of Judah that chosen plant. He expected justice,
