

PROGRAMME FOR OCTOBER: Month of the Holy Rosary

Please see the front of the bulletin for details of all our services this week.

Although all services are live-streamed (details on front page) and the Sunday Obligation remains suspended, attendance at some Masses is possible, but only by booking beforehand.

Please scan the following QR code to access the Reservation system

Alternatively go to the parish website www.sthelenslangside.org.uk and click the link for Mass Reservation.

If you cannot manage to book online yourself (or ask someone to do it on your behalf), you can phone 07561 646339 on a Monday or a Friday between 11.00 am and 1.00 pm. The volunteer answering the phone will make the online booking on your behalf and be able to confirm if your requested place is available.

October is Mission Month

..and last Sunday was Mission Sunday when we would normally have a second collection for the Missions. Unfortunately in these days when second collections are suspended we have not had the opportunity to make our normally very generous contribution to Missio Scotland. If you would still like to help the Missions and are in a position to do so, please go to <https://www.missioscotland.com> where you will find a 'donate' button allowing you to make an on-line donation. You can also make a donation of £3 by text...

November Lists

November is the month of the Holy Souls and Mass is offered each day for the Faithful Departed and especially those whose names you include on your November Lists. These lists are now available, but if you prefer, you can download a November List from the parish website, place it in your own envelope and return it to one of the white collection tubs in the Church (or place it through the letterbox at the parish house). If you are reading this bulletin on-line, you can click HERE for a copy of the November List

Help Please!

SPUC is urging those who value human life and the health and wellbeing of women to respond to the Government consultation on Future Arrangements for Early Medical Abortion at Home. This is the most important pro-life activity you can do in 2020. On the SPUC website you will find a step by step guide to completing the questionnaire and other resources to help you complete the consultation here Or you can contact Margaret Akers 07447 531 507 or margaret@spucscotland.org. for help. Please take the time to let your pro-life voice be heard! (before 5th January 2021) You really can make a difference!

Parish Financial Matters

The people of Saint Helen's are doing their parish proud, as always and once again I want to express my profound gratitude. As the current situation continues, if you are in a position to do so, please keep up your generosity since the costs of running the parish are rising. For example, now that the weather is cooler the heating is back on, we have also had to spend more than £1,000 in the last six weeks for the various sanitizing products we require to keep the church safe, we have invested nearly £2,000 in the technology we require to be able to provide the live streaming service of all our Masses and Devotions which is so much appreciated by those who are still unable to get to Church. Not to mention the recent alterations we have made to provide safer exiting onto Deanston Drive. I have included our bank details below. In addition, we have an on-line giving facility which allows you to make an offering quickly and safely – either as a one-off or as a regular payment. Just go to our website (you can also gift aid!) (www.sthelenslangside.org.uk) and click on the "on-line giving" button. We are very grateful for a steady number of people who have used this online facility – last month we received more than £600

Living Faith in the age of Covid

The Bishops' Conference have produced the first Pastoral Ministry Newsletter entitled "Living in Faith in the age of Covid 19" which provides useful information and links on supporting your spiritual and mental health during this time. In particular, on pages 5 and 6 there are some very useful contacts for organisations that can provide practical help for your mental wellbeing. You can find it on the Bishops' Conference website at www.bcos.org.uk or by clicking on the link below (if you are reading the on-line version of the bulletin!)

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defence against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity.”

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 17(18):2-4,47,51

I love you, Lord, my strength.

I love you, Lord, my strength,
my rock, my fortress, my saviour.

My God is the rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold.

The Lord is worthy of all praise, when I call I am saved from my foes.

Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be the God who saves
me,

He has given great victories to his king and shown his love for his anointed.

Second reading

1 Thessalonians 1:5-10

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread – and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

Gospel Acclamation

cf. Ac 16:14

Alleluia, alleluia!
Open our heart, O Lord,
to accept the words of your Son.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, ‘Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?’ Jesus said, ‘You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: You must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.’

SAINT HELEN'S, LANGSIDE Bulletin

25TH OCTOBER 2020
30TH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

First reading

Exodus 22:20-26

The Lord said to Moses, ‘Tell the sons of Israel this: “You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans. “If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him. “If you take another’s cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he

Some people asked Jesus:

WHAT IS THE GREATEST COMMANDMENT?

Jesus replied:

LOVE GOD ABOVE ALL LOVE ONE ANOTHER

How can you follow these two commandments. Write about them or draw in the spaces below.
