

PRAYER FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A NEW ARCHBISHOP

O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

MONTH'S MIND MASS

The Diocesan Administrator will celebrate a Month's Mind Mass for the late Archbishop Tartaglia in the Cathedral on Saturday 13th February at 1.00 pm – it will be live streamed on the usual Cathedral webcam which can be accessed at www.cathedralg1.org

PARISH LITURGY SCHEDULE

Mass will be live-streamed every day at 10.00 am with the exception of Sunday when Mass will be at 11.00 am. In addition, on Tuesdays at 7.00 pm we will have the Rosary and Novena for the appointment of a new bishop and on Friday we will have our regular time of prayer and the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

PARISH FINANCIAL MATTERS

Once again I want to register my deep gratitude to the parishioners of Saint Helen's for their tremendous generosity which is keeping the parish afloat during these difficult times. I know that money is tight, but please continue to do what you can to support your parish. We are especially grateful to those who have used the on-line giving facilities since obviously we have lost some cash income during the period when the church has been closed. During this period, while some expenditure has decreased, we have still had to provide background heat in the Church and Hall in an effort to prevent further problems in this cold weather. Despite this we have just discovered a problem with the hall roof which has caused a lot of water entry and damage to the ceiling and walls of the hall. This will be repaired within the next week or so. We have an on-line giving facility which allows you to make an offering quickly and safely – either as a one-off or as a regular payment. Just go to the parish website (www.sthelenslangside.org.uk) and click on the 'DONATE' for more details. I am particularly grateful that so many of you have chosen the option to register so that your offering is also gift aided. If you prefer to set up a standing order directly with your bank, our account details are below. The biggest 'thank you' to you all

VOLUNTEERS INVITED

We are grateful to those who have contributed to the celebration of Sunday Mass with readings and music. Further volunteers will be most welcome. Just email the parish and Mgr Paul will send you a copy of the readings which you are invited to record and email back. Any of our musicians willing to provide some hymns/psalms/background music, etc. would also be much appreciated. It is great to see by the comments on Facebook how much these enhancements to the Sunday Liturgy are appreciated.

PROPOSED HATE CRIME AND PUBLIC ORDER BILL

This is an important matter that bears on our faith and on our freedom of conscience and expression. This bill is now at an important stage for considering amendments on which MSPs will vote on Tuesday 9th February. As previously expressed by the late Archbishop Tartaglia we are asked to write to our MSP's asking them to ensure this new bill is properly scrutinised, amended and tightened up before it becomes law, so that everyone continues to enjoy the right to propose and argue for their convictions and beliefs in a peaceful and civil way. ### PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defence against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen slowly evening comes!' Restlessly I fret till twilight falls. Swifter than a weaver's shuttle my days have passed, and vanished, leaving no hope behind. Remember that my life is but a breath, and that my eyes will never again see joy.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 146(147):1-6

Praise the Lord who heals the broken-hearted.

Praise the Lord for he is good;
singing to our God for he is loving;
to him our praise is due.

The Lord builds up Jerusalem
and brings back Israel's exiles,
he heals the broken-hearted,
he binds up all their wounds.
He fixes the number of the stars;
he calls each one by its name.

Our Lord is great and almighty;
his wisdom can never be measured.
The Lord raises the lowly;
he humbles the wicked to the dust.

Second reading

1 Corinthians 9:16-19,22-23

I do not boast of preaching the gospel, since it is a duty which has been laid on me; I should be punished if I did not preach it! If I had chosen this work myself, I might have been paid for it, but as I have not, it is a responsibility which has been put into my hands. Do you know what my reward is? It is this: in my preaching, to be able to offer the Good News free, and not insist on the rights which the gospel gives me.

So though I am not a slave of any man I have made myself the slave of everyone so as to win as many as I could. I made myself all things to all men in order to save some at any cost; and I still do this, for the sake of the gospel, to have a share in its blessings.

Gospel Acclamation

Jn8:12

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the light of the world, says the Lord;
anyone who follows me will have the light
of life.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 1:29-39

On leaving the synagogue, Jesus went with James and John straight to the house of Simon and Andrew. Now Simon's mother-in-law had gone to bed with fever, and they told him about her straightaway. He went to her, took her by the hand and helped her up. And the fever left her and she began to wait on them. That evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were sick and those who were possessed by devils. The whole town came crowding round the door, and he cured many who were suffering from diseases of one kind or another; he also cast out many devils, but he would not allow them to speak, because they knew who he was. In the morning, long before dawn, he got up and left the house, and went off to a lonely place and prayed there. Simon and his companions set out in search of him, and when they found him they said, 'Everybody is looking for you.' He answered, 'Let us go elsewhere, to the neighbouring country towns, so that I can preach there too, because that is why I came.' And he went all through Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out devils.

Job 7:1-4,6-7

Job began to speak: Is not man's life on earth nothing more than pressed service, his time no better than hired drudgery? Like the slave, sighing for the shade, or the workman with no thought but his wages, months of delusion I have assigned to me, nothing for my own but nights of grief. Lying in bed I wonder, 'When will it be day?' Risen I think, 'How
