

- Places for Mass are available for booking at each of the masses this week with the exception of Saturday, which is live streamed only. You can make a booking by visiting the Mass Registration page on the parish website. If you are unable to do this (or ask someone to do it for you), you can call the booking number (07561 646339) on a Friday or a Monday between 11.00 am and 1.00 pm
- Devotions with prayers to the Sacred Heart during June will be led by Deacon Kevin and livestreamed from the Church on MONDAY at 7.00 pm
- Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Succour is on Thursday at 6.45, just before Mass and the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy is on Friday at 7.00 pm.

June is the Month of the Sacred Heart, in recognition of Jesus' apparitions starting in 1673 to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque (1647-1690), a member of the Visitation Sisters, through whom He asked for devotion to His Sacred Heart. Christ told St. Margaret that He wanted to reveal His wounded Heart because He could not abide watching as countless people turned away from Him. He wanted all to experience His love, mercy, and grace, and to attain salvation.

SOLEMNITY OF SAINTS PETER AND PAUL

Tuesday of this week is the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. Due to the continuing restrictions in numbers that are in place, this is NOT a holy day of obligation since the Bishops continue the suspension of the obligation to attend Mass. However, to permit an extra opportunity on this feast day, there will be a Mass at 10.00 am and 7.00 pm. Places for in-person attendance are available through the usual on-line booking system.

Thank You!

FOR YOUR PRAYERS, PATIENCE, & FINANCIAL SUPPORT

We continue to be more grateful than we can express for the tremendous generosity of the people of Saint Helen's in these difficult times. If you are able, please try to continue your efforts. You can use our online giving facility by clicking HERE or going to the parish website and clicking on the 'DONATE' button for more details. I am particularly grateful that so many of you have chosen the option to register here so that your offering is also gift aided. If you prefer to set up a standing order directly with your bank, our account details are below. The biggest 'thank you' to you all.

A MESSAGE FROM MGR. PAUL

I have very personal reasons this week to express my gratitude once again to the people of Saint Helen's who have been so kind to me on the occasion of my birthday last weekend (even it was one that I hoped would be glossed over!). I really have been so touched by the gifts, both collective and individual which I have received – and even more so by the great affection and appreciation contained in all the good wishes. I am so grateful to you all and for the privilege of being your parish priest.

"THE BEAUTY OF MARRIAGE"

This is the Pope's prayer intention for June and he invites everyone to pray for those preparing for marriage which 'isn't just a "social" act; it's a vocation born from the heart.' As the Church reflects this year on Pope Francis' encyclical on Love in the Family, (Amoris Laetitia) our hope is that the vibrant desire of young people to marry and form a family will be an inspiration to us all. To watch a short video clip, click here

PRAYER FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A NEW ARCHBISHOP

O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defence against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen. .

REMEMBER!!

If you scroll down past the bulletin itself in the online version you will find a selection of Children's Liturgy materials to help engage your child in this week's Mass.

restored me to life from those who sink into the grave.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him,
give thanks to his holy name.
His anger lasts a moment; his favour all through life.
At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn.

The Lord listened and had pity.
The Lord came to my help.
For me you have changed my mourning into dancing:
O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever.

SECOND READING

2 Corinthians 8:7,9,13-15

You always have the most of everything – of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection – so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

cf. Jn6:63,68

Alleluia, alleluia!
Your words are spirit, Lord, and they are life;
you have the message of eternal life.

GOSPEL

Mark 5:21-24,35-43

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him. While he was still speaking some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kumi!' which means, 'Little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

FIRST READING

Wisdom 1:13-15,2:23-24

Death was not God's doing, he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living. To be – for this he created all; the world's created things have health in them, in them no fatal poison can be found, and Hades holds no power on earth; for virtue is undying. Yet God did make man imperishable, he made him in the image of his own nature; it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world, as those who are his partners will discover.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 29(30):2,4-6,11-13

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.

O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead,
