

TO CHECK IN PLEASE
SCAN THIS QR CODE
WITH YOUR SMART PHONE CAMERA.

We still need to take a note of the contact numbers of people attending Mass.

For Sunday Masses, the preferred method is to check in using the QR code above (which is also displayed prominently on posters throughout the Church).

PLEASE TRY TO USE THE QR CODE – MANY PEOPLE WHO COULD DO SO ARE USING THE CARDS WHICH GREATLY INCREASES OUR COSTS AND ADMINISTRATION.

If you do not have access to a smart phone, or really cannot use this simple feature, our volunteers will give you a check-in card which you are asked to complete and place in the white boxes located around the church along with your Mass offering.

For weekday Masses you will be checked off the list if you are a regular attendee – or our volunteers will take a one-off note of your name and details if you have not visited for a while

Some further points to bear in mind...

- Masks/Face Coverings are still to be worn in the Church.
- You will still be asked to sanitise your hands on entering and leaving the Church.
- We will be maintaining a routine of cleaning surfaces and spaces within the church.
- You are welcome to light candles yourself without assistance from the volunteers. Please just make sure your hands are dry after using sanitizer.
- Some people may still be a little nervous about indoor gatherings, so please continue to respect personal space – the church is large enough to allow people to spread themselves out so that everyone is comfortable.

The income from the annual special collections is vital to sustaining SPRED's work in support of the men, women and children in our parishes who have a learning or developmental disability. Please take a leaflet from the back of the church which gives more information about the work of SPRED. There are buckets at the back of the Church after all the Masses to allow you to make a donation if you are able to do so.

ENVIRONMENTALLY SUSTAINABLE LIFESTYLE

This is the Pope's prayer intention for the month of September (The Season of Creation) inviting everyone to take the opportunity to reflect on "the way we eat, consume, travel, or the way we use water, energy, plastics, and many other material goods," especially those which are harmful to the environment. In his short video message Pope Francis invites us to pray that everyone might make choices which promote a simple and sustainable lifestyle remarking that adults can learn much from young people, since they are often at the forefront of issues "related to care for the planet." to watch click HERE

On the 20th Anniversary of the 9/11 attacks, we continue to remember the victims and their loved ones who still grieve and mourn their loss. We continue with hope to pray for peace in our troubled world.

PRAYER TO SAINT MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defence against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

I love the Lord for he has heard
the cry of my appeal;
for he turned his ear to me
in the day when I called him.

They surrounded me, the snares of death,
with the anguish of the tomb;
they caught me, sorrow and distress.
I called on the Lord's name.
O Lord, my God, deliver me!

How gracious is the Lord, and just;
our God has compassion.
The Lord protects the simple hearts;
I was helpless so he saved me.

He has kept my soul from death,
my eyes from tears
and my feet from stumbling.
I will walk in the presence of the Lord
in the land of the living.

Second reading

James 2:14-18

Take the case, my brothers, of someone who has never done a single good act but claims that he has faith. Will that faith save him? If one of the brothers or one of the sisters is in need of clothes and has not enough food to live on, and one of you says to them, 'I wish you well; keep yourself warm and eat plenty', without giving them these bare necessities of life, then what good is that? Faith is like that: if good works do not go with it, it is quite dead. This is the way to talk to people of that kind: 'You say you have faith and I have good deeds; I will prove to you that I have faith by showing you my good deeds – now you prove to me that you have faith without any good deeds to show.'

Gospel Acclamation

Jn14:6

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the Way, the Truth and the Life,
says the Lord;

No one can come to the Father except through me.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 8:27-35

Jesus and his disciples left for the villages round Caesarea Philippi. On the way he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say I am?' And they told him. 'John the Baptist,' they said 'others Elijah; others again, one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he asked 'who do you say I am?' Peter spoke up and said to him, 'You are the Christ.' And he gave them strict orders not to tell anyone about him. And he began to teach them that the Son of Man was destined to suffer grievously, to be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and to be put to death, and after three days to rise again; and he said all this quite openly. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. But, turning and seeing his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said to him, 'Get behind me, Satan! Because the way you think is not God's way but man's.' He called the people and his disciples to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it.'

First reading

Isaiah 50:5-9

The Lord has opened my ear. For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle. The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults. So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed. My vindicator is here at hand. Does anyone start proceedings against me? Then let us go to court together. Who thinks he has a case against me? Let him approach me. The Lord is coming to my help, who will dare to condemn me?

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 114(116):1-6,8-9
