

Miami Archdiocesan Council of Catholic Woman
 Diocesan Report for FCCW
 September 2, 2020

I hope this reports finds you all safe and well. The past few months since I have assumed the role of President of MACCW has been challenging to say the least. The Covid19 virus has ushered in a whole new way of life for all of us. It is a challenge along with our Lord's help I greatly accept. I have decided the theme for my presidency will be "Expect great things from God" "Attempt great things for God".

I have started a new Facebook group page for MACCW. It started out very slow, but we now have over 50 members. The hardest challenge was from some of the members that are not that tech savvy. I heard "I don't Facebook". After numerous emails and giving directions, it has become quite a success. It is a private group that members only of CCW organizations are permitted access. From this page our three districts can also pull information and events from to disseminate to their Affiliations.

We have done a virtual raffle by live streaming through the Facebook group page. We currently have another raffle under way, and we are also planning virtual bingo in the near future. This month we will hold our first live rosary via live streaming through Facebook.

I have also been utilizing zoom for various meetings. I held a brainstorming meeting with a few of the executive board members and have a meeting planned with some of our diocesan past presidents to pick their brains. Our summer board meeting will be held on September 26, 2020 via zoom and hopefully simultaneously live streamed through Facebook.

There is still so much to learn in this new virtual world we all are trying to become adjusted too. I just pray that our beloved CCW organizations can overcome this scourge that is upon us.

Respectfully submitted by,
 Marliese Ljuba
 President MACCW
