Prayer for New Beginnings

Let us praise the Lord of days and seasons and years, saying: Glory to God in the highest! And peace to His people on earth!

Our lives are made of days and nights, of seasons and years.

We mark ends and we make beginnings and, in all, we praise God for the grace and mercy that fill our days. Thanks be to God.

Remember us, O God,
from age to age be our Comforter.
You have given us the wonder of time,
blessings in days and nights, seasons and years.

Jesus our Faithful Companion, at this time
I pray:

To live deeply, with purpose,
To live freely, with detachments,
To live wisely, with humility,
To live justly, with compassion,
To live lovingly, with fidelity,
To live mindfully, with awareness,
To live gratefully, with generosity,
To live fully, with enthusiasm.

Lord, help me to hold this vision and to daily renew it in my heart, becoming ever more one with You, my truest Self.

Bless Your children at the turning of this new season and fill the months ahead with the bright hope that is ours in the coming of Christ.

You are our God, living and reigning, forever and ever. We make our prayer, through Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

Today's Readings

First Reading — The Lord said to Job: Who shut within doors the sea? And who said: Thus far shall you come but no farther! (Job 38:1, 8-11).

Psalm — Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting (Psalm 107).

Second Reading — Whoever is in Christ is a new creation (2 Corinthians 5:14-17).

Gospel — Who is this whom even wind and sea obey? (Mark 4:35-41).

Today's Reflection: The Wind and The Sea

Living along the shores of Lake Superior—the “big lake,” as the locals call it—you can often hear the advice, “Respect the lake; don’t take it for granted.” People who know Lake Superior respect its power and watch out for its many moods. Sunken ships and boats crushed into kindling are testimonies to what the lake can do.

The readings of this Sunday evoke our memories of the lake, of the mighty Mississippi River, or of the ocean itself. Who but God can control these mighty waters and set limits to their advance? The lake described in today’s Gospel was a body of water subject to sudden storms and churned into dangerous waves by terrible winds.

But these mighty agents are subject to God. The sailor and the fisher all respect the water. Even more, they respect the awesome power of the Maker of wind and sea.

Your Giving Is Helping More Than Ever

Please continue to give faithfully. With the reopening of the church, baskets are available near the church main exit doors for you to place your offering in. At this time donation envelopes will not be provided.

You may continue to drop off your offering at the parish office window, send it by mail (209 N. Hanford Ave., San Pedro, CA 90732), or set up online giving on our parish website (holyltrinitysp.org) by clicking directly on the e-Giving icon and follow the prompts. There is also available, at most banks, online bill pay whereby your bank sends a recurring check (weekly, monthly) to Holy Trinity. Just be certain this is a free option at your bank.

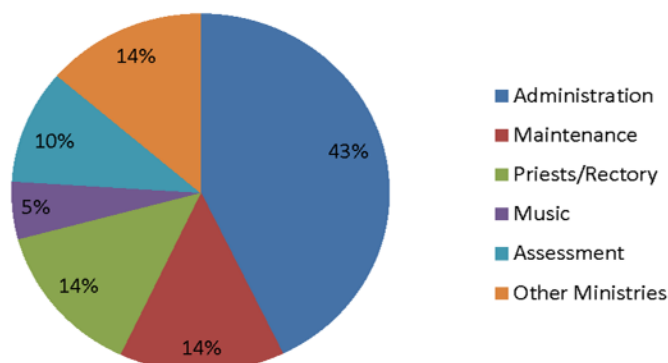

Thank you to the many who have mailed in their offerings or signed up with e-Giving. We thank you for your understanding and generosity. We greatly appreciate your continued support during this time. For any questions, please contact Kathy Morris at 310-548-6535 ext. 323 (Monday-Friday, 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.) or email kmorris@holyltrinitysp.org.

Letter from Most Reverend Jose H Gomez June 12, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The coronavirus pandemic has affected our world and society in ways we could never have imagined.

Early on in the pandemic, many people experienced great fears and anxieties in the face of tremendous uncertainty. We recognized the fragility of our human nature. However, it also brought us closer together as one family seeking the good and wellbeing of the other. Most importantly, through this pandemic, we came to recognize our deep reliance on God and the truth of God's abiding love for us, His sons and daughters.

We remain strong in our faith knowing that God will always be by our side.

Thankfully, we continue to make significant progress in our fight against the pandemic in the three counties of the Archdiocese. We can look forward to better days in which we can actively live our faith as the Body of Christ in our parish communities.

And so, on June 19th and 20th, I encourage the Catholic faithful of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles to return to in-person Sunday Mass and the celebration of the Sacraments, especially for those who are in good health.

By this letter, effective June 19, 2021, the dispensation from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass and Holy Days of Obligation in response to the coronavirus pandemic will be lifted for the Catholic faithful of the Archdiocese of Los Angeles.

Those who have serious and legitimate reasons (e.g., illness, underlying health conditions that renders them susceptible to illness, significant fears of becoming ill, etc.) are dispensed from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass and Holy Days of Obligation.

In these cases, Pastors are to encourage the faithful to keep the Lord's Day holy by reading the Gospels, praying with their families, or joining themselves to the sacrifice of the Mass by making an Act of Spiritual Communion.

Know that I am praying for you, and I ask you to please pray for me and my ministry.

May Jesus bless us with good health, peace, and joy.

Most Reverend Jose H Gomez
Archbishop of Los Angeles

NOTE: See page 5

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe you are really here in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love you more than anything in the world, and I hunger to receive you.
But since I cannot receive Communion at this moment, feed my soul at least spiritually.

I unite myself to you now as I do when I actually receive you.
Amen.

—St. Alphonsus Liguori

Eucharistic Adoration

Could you not watch one hour
with me?
(Mathew 26:40)

Eucharistic Adoration continues to flourish at Holy Trinity. The Blessed Sacrament is exposed on the main altar of the church Monday through Saturday immediately after the 8 AM Mass and reposed at 1 PM.

If another event is scheduled in the church during those hours, Eucharistic Adoration will be held in the Children's Chapel that day. Signs will be posted in both entrances to notify the general public. Please adhere to the safety guidelines that are listed below.

Adoration is a quiet time spent in prayer before Jesus who is present in the Blessed Sacrament. As a form of respect, you should always genuflect when you see the Lord in the Host. Maintain an attitude of respect and silence if others are present. Keep in mind that you are in the presence of Christ.

Scheduled hours of Adoration are available. If you are interested in having an assigned hour please contact the coordinator, Mary Alvidrez, at 310-429-0287.

We would like to thank our Pastor, Fr. Kevin Nolan, for his continued support of Eucharistic Adoration at our Parish.

"Whenever I go to the chapel, I put myself in the presence of our good Lord, and I say to Him, 'Lord, I am here. Tell me what You would have me to do' . . . And then, I tell God everything that is in my heart. I tell Him about my pains and my joys, and then I listen. If you listen, God will also speak to you, for with the good Lord, you have to both speak and listen. God always speaks to you when you approach Him plainly and simply."

– St. Catherine Labouré

Safeguard The Children

Did You Know?

Using the “What If” game to raise problem-solving children

The “What If” game is a great way to walk your children through potential scenarios, and work with them to find the best solutions. Ask your children about “what if” scenarios, mixing silly questions with real world ones to keep them engaged and thinking, like “What if you had super powers?” and “What if a stranger asked you to go somewhere with him at the mall?” You can empower your children with problem-solving skills that will keep them safe even when you can’t be there to protect them. For more information, visit <https://www.d2l.org/what-if-game/>.

Protegiendo a los Niños

¿Sabe Usted?

Uso del juego “¿Y si ...?” para criar niños que resuelven problemas

El juego “¿Qué pasaría si ...?” es una excelente manera de guiar a sus hijos a través de posibles escenarios y trabajar con ellos para encontrar las mejores soluciones. Pregúntele a sus hijos sobre escenarios de “qué pasaría si”, mezclando preguntas tontas con preguntas del mundo real para mantenerlos interesados y pensando. Por ejemplo, “¿Y si tuvieras superpoderes?” o “¿Qué pasa si un extraño te pide que vayas a algún lugar con él en el centro comercial?” Usted puede capacitar a sus hijos con habilidades para resolver problemas que los mantendrán seguros, incluso cuando usted no pueda estar allí para protegerlos. Para obtener más información, visite <https://www.d2l.org/what-if-game/>.

Readings for Next Sunday

June 27, 2021:

13th Sunday of Ordinary Time

First Reading: Wisdom 1:13-15, 2:23-24

Psalm: 30:2, 4-6, 11-13

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Gospel: Mark 5:21-43

“Do not be afraid, just have faith.”

—Mark 5:36

Scripture Focus:

In a culture that likes to deny death or keep it at a distance, the readings today confront death and reveal God’s plan for life—full abundant life even after death. The gospel shows two desperate people. A father begs Jesus to help his sick daughter. An afflicted woman reaches out to Jesus for a cure. Both people put aside fears in their frantic search for help. By seeking Jesus, Jairus risks the ridicule of his fellow synagogue officials. The unclean woman risks the crowd’s anger, and possibly Jesus’ anger as well, for her touch. Jesus responds to both tenderly. He calms their fears, confirms their faith and restores the woman to health and Jairus’ daughter to new life. Jesus overpowers sickness and death. He answers people’s spoken and unspoken needs. “God formed [humans] to be imperishable,” says the author of Wisdom. Each of us must trust God’s plan.

Reflection:

1. Relate an experience of “death” in your life. How did your faith help you to cope?
2. Jairus brought Jesus to his dying daughter. To whom do you need to bring Jesus’ healing touch this week? How will you do it?
3. Where in your own life, right now, do you need to hear Jesus’ words, “Do not be afraid; just have faith”?
4. What difficulties do you find in expressing and living your faith in today’s world?

Keep Your Spiritual Life Going!

During this time social distancing, it important for you to continue your spiritual journey from home. Here are a few ways you can do so:

1. Sunday Homilies and valuable insights into the Catholic Faith with Word on Fire Bishop Robert Barron: wordonfire.org
2. Sign up for FORMED (formed.org), the online Catholic library filled with wonderful resources for all ages!
3. Free App called Laudate has the entire bible, prayers, the rosary and resources for spiritual growth.
4. It is good to read the New Testament starting with the Gospel of Matthew through Revelation during this time. Just read 15 to 20 minutes a day. The Laudate app has the entire bible on it.
5. Keep up with Holy Trinity by reading the weekly Bulletin online at <http://parish.holytrinitysp.org>
6. Stay connected with the Los Angeles Archdiocese at lacatholic.org
7. Visit The United States Catholic Bishop's website at usccb.org

Let us remember those suffering illness, infirmity, and those in need of our prayers...

Isabel Colello, Owen & Irene Daly, COVID-19 patients, health care workers & first responders; all their families and loved ones; all those who are suffering from the loss of their jobs and businesses; all those who fear for their future; all the many men and women who are risking their health to provide essential services in this time of need, our country and military.

Let us remember the deceased in our prayers...
