Requiescat in pace

For all the Unborn, David Lavigne

“Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.”

Sunday Scripture Verses

Ezekiel 17:22-24; Psalm 92:2-3, 13-14, 15-16; 2 Corinthians 5:6-10 & Mark 4:26-34
Jesus said to the crowds: “This is how it is with the kingdom of God; it is as if a man were to scatter seed on the land and would sleep and rise night and day and through it all the seed would sprout and grow, he knows not how. Of its own accord the land yields fruit, first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the grain is ripe, he wields the sickle at once, for the harvest has come.” He said, “To what shall we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable can we use for it? It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade.” With many such parables he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it. Without parables he did not speak to them, but to his own disciples he explained everything in private.

Linked in Faith

Have you ever shared with someone why you are Catholic? Or thought about how your faith can inspire others? Linked in Faith is a project that the Director of Youth Ministry from our Diocese, Bill Gavin, has been creating. He has been recording Faith journeys of parishioners from around our diocese and their messages to our youth. The hope is that these messages are ones of encouragement for our youth, encouragement to continue their own faith journey and maybe to find similar thoughts or experiences. Below is the link to the almost 30 journeys. Take a moment or two to watch and listen, page 3 has some familiar faces from St. John. Enjoy!

*“Do not be afraid to present to him(Jesus) all the intentions of our suffering humanity, its fears, its miseries. May this Heart, full of love for men, give everyone hope and trust. I invite you to discover the riches that are hidden in the Heart of Jesus.”

Coffee Hour at St. John

We have not yet received word that we can resume Coffee Hours again, but once we do, we will need to have volunteers to help with it. If you are interested in helping with Coffee Hour, please email the rectory and let us know. At this time, it would most likely be just once a month. We are looking for at least two people to volunteer for each Coffee Hour. The volunteers would be responsible for set up/clean up as well as providing the goodies & treats, milk or creamer for it. Coffee & Juice will be provided by St. John, although you will probably have to purchase the juice as needed at TOPS. If you have any questions, please email the rectory with them and someone will get back to you. Our email is stjohned2@gmail.com. Thank you!

Donations for Fr. Julian's trip to the Phillipines

Fr. Julian is planning a trip this summer to the Phillipines. He is currently still in the planning stages of the trip. Most likely it will be sometime in July and/or August. This will definitely be a costly trip for Fr. Julian. Several parishioners have asked if they can make donations to help with his expenses. We will have an envelope in the rectory office for donations. If you write a check, it must be made payable to Fr. Julian Asucan and NOT to St. John's. You are welcome to include a card or a note with your donation. (Remember his 20th Anniversary to the Priesthood was just recently celebrated). You can also give your donation directly to Fr. Julian if you prefer.

Rite of Welcoming

This Sunday, June 13th, at the 8:30am Mass, we will celebrate our "Rite of Welcoming" for our 3 RCIA candidates:

Angela Moore, Abraham Marshall & Katie Burt

May God continue to bless them and guide them in their spiritual journey.
