Requiescat in pace
For all the Unborn

“Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.”

Sunday Scripture Verses

Isaiah 50:5-9a; Psalm 116:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 8-9; James 2:14-18 & Mark 8:27-35
Jesus and his disciples set out for the villages of Caesarea Philippi. Along the way he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that I am?” They said in reply, “John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others one of the prophets.” And he asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter said to him in reply, “You are the Christ.” Then he warned them not to tell anyone about him. He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days. He spoke this openly. Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do.” He summoned the crowd with his disciples and said to them, “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake and that of the gospel will save it.”

Celebration of Thanksgiving

Sunday, September 12th at the 8:30 AM Mass followed by Coffee Hour. Come join us and give thanks to God for continuing to help us through this pandemic and allowing us to celebrate as a parish family. * All are welcome to join us for our coffee hour this morning, we ask that you wear a mask as you go through the line for some cake and coffee and when you are not eating. Hand sanitizer will also be available. ****

If anyone has fresh flowers to help decorate the church for this weekend, bring to the parish hall Saturday afternoon, September 11th, between 3-5pm or Sunday morning before Mass.

Thank You!

“Thank you to the parishioners who came and supported the Lawn Sale last weekend.”

Communion/Home Visits

If you know of anyone who is homebound who would like to receive a communion visit from Fr. Julian, please contact the rectory, 485-8313. Fr. Julian has recently been able to resume home/communion visits.

Vocation Chalice

Call the Rectory Office to sign-up for a week to receive the Vocation Chalice and pray for vocations. Upon return, the chalice, etc will be cleaned and disinfected before it's given to the next person.

Code Of Conduct Forms

Just a reminder that ALL volunteers need to complete a Code of Conduct form. This is a diocesan requirement. Blank forms can be found in the table in the entrance of the church. Most folks will only need to sign the form for volunteers who DO NOT work with Minors. There is also a manila envelope on the table to put your signed copies in. Thank you to those volunteers who have turned in their completed forms.

Fall Book Discussion Group

Maryann McGinnis and Diane Byrne invite you to join us in our new Fall Book Discussion Group. We will be leading discussions on THE CONTAGIOUS Catholic by Marcel Lejeune. This book will be provided to all participants, however if you can, we would appreciate donations of $15.00 to cover the cost of the book. Please let Diane or Maryann know of your interest in joining.

Below are our emails;

Maryann – mbmcginnis5@gmail.com

Diane – dianebyrne607@gmail.com

Please let us know of your interest by Monday,

September 20th so that the correct number of books can be ordered. Our first meeting will occur after all participants have received their books and we have solicited from the participants the best day and time for everyone to meet.

Thank you,

Maryann and Diane
