SHEPHERDS CACHE

Items such as dehydrated vegetables, canned, and boxed or packaged snacks and foods may be deposited in the box before Masses or weekdays during office hours. Thank you for helping to feed struggling families.

General Dispensation No Longer in Effect

The general dispensation from the Sunday obligation is no longer in effect. Only those who are considered high risk (i.e., those who are immune deficient, elderly, etc.) or living in communities with stricter protocols are dispensed. This will remain in effect until further notice.

During our worship, we will continue to:

- Refrain from handshakes and embraces at Mass.
- Refrain from holding hands through the Our Father
- Refrain from the Sign of Peace
- Cease distributing the Precious Blood

Holy Communion

- The safest way to receive Communion is in the hand.
- Those who opt for Communion on the tongue should approach the priest after Mass.

- Baskets will not be passed for a collection. Parishioners may drop their offering off in the offering box/basket. We will not have gift-bearers.

Social Distancing

Alaskans are encouraged to continue to follow health and hygiene protocols to prevent the spread of COVID-19, including:

- Wash hands frequently;

- Pews are marked with orange tape to encourage social distancing.
- Families may sit together; others should maintain a 6 foot distance from those of another household.
- Wear a face covering in public places when near others.
- Be mindful and respectful to those Alaskans that are most vulnerable to this virus, including Alaska's senior population and those with existing health conditions.
