POPE FRANCIS ADDRESSES 15 SPIRITUAL DISEASES

The Holy Father said that these sicknesses/ temptations are a danger not only for members of the Roman Curia, but also for every Christian, community, parish, church movement, religious congregation, and diocesan staff. They can afflict any of us on an individual level as well as on a communal level.

I recommend that all of us prayerful consider whether we might be affected by any of these temptations or ailments.

10. The disease of indifference to others – This is when one thinks only of oneself and does not put one's knowledge at the service of colleagues who are less expert. Also when one finds joy in seeing others fall.

Excerpt from Bishop Sis article in West Texas Angelus, January 2015.

"Stewardship is planned giving and does not leave giving to chance. It challenges us to plan. It asks us to appraise – deliberately – what we are doing with our time, our talent and our treasure."

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS

Liturgy of the Word:

Second, sometimes at the beginning of the Gospel, incense is used as a sign of God's mysterious presence in the word. Then, after the acclamation, a special greeting also reminds us of the Lord's presence. The priest says, "The Lord be with you." We respond, "And with your spirit." Once again, this greeting is both a wish for us and a statement that the Lord is already with us.

COMPRENDER LA MISA
Liturgia de la palabra:

En segundo lugar, al principio del Evangelio, incienso se utiliza a veces como un signo de la presencia misteriosa de Dios en la palabra. Entonces, después de la aclamación, un saludo especial también nos recuerda la presencia del señor. El sacerdote dice: "el señor esté con usted." Respondemos, "Y con tu espíritu". Una vez más, este saludo es para nosotros un deseo y una declaración que el señor ya está con nosotros.

Sunday's Reflections

1 John 2:1-5a

UNDOING SIN

A good word-processing program has an “undo” function. If you hit the wrong key, or accidentally wipe out a paragraph you’ve been working on, you can hit “undo”. It will bring you back to where you were just before you made your mistake. You have to catch your mistake right away, but if you do, you can undo.

How we wish life came with an “undo” function. There are words, sentences, paragraphs and entire days we’d like to undo in our past. Even if we catch them right away, it is hard to undo all the damage done by our sins.

When someone says, “I forgive you,” the news is hard to believe. When someone offers to undo us from the mess we’ve created, the news refreshes like spring rain.

Jesus forgives. This is some of the good news that comes from Easter. In dying for us and rising from the dead, Jesus offers forgiveness for our past. He invites us to the same journey he has traveled, from death to life. He symbolizes it by taking us on the journey from sin to forgiveness.

John writes in a letter, “If anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins.”

Some of the people we have hurt may find it hard to forgive us, but Jesus is ready. What can he do? He can undo.
