NEW BEGINNINGS!

YOUR DOLLARS AT WORK!

The financial Council and Pastoral Council have agreed to have the following items done.

1. Church face-lift – which includes painting the walls, and replacing the carpet. The Diocesan Architect was consulted on the removal of carpet and stated there are 3 layers to remove. 1st layer is the original tile flooring that was glued down. The glue contains asbestos. And for that reason, we would have to use an abatement team to remove the tile, cost is $15,000. 2nd layer is an indoor/outdoor carpet also glued. The 3rd layer is the green carpet we have now. Cost of the face-lift will be approximately $50,000, which includes the $15,000 for the abatement.
2. Asphalt on the front and back parking lot. The process used for the asphalt will be similar to the city roads in Coahoma, which is a Single shot tac oil and single course chip seal. The cost for both front and back lots is approximately $42,000.

HOW DO WE PAY FOR THIS?

As we repay our savings, which we used to pay the contractor for Our Lady of Guadalupe Family Center, we are able to pay for these two items.

Currently, our building campaign total through the end of April is $974,274.58, towards our goal of $1,200,000.00 – the cost of the construction.

As we continue pledging through March of 2016 these items will be paid for. A big Thank You for your donations and allowing us to upgrade our church!

Pro-life Hotline...1-800-395-HELP

June 14 St Paul tells us, "Do not conform yourself to this age but ...discern...what is good and pleasing..." Since Roe v. Wade, around 57 million innocent children have lost their God-given right to live. An entire class of persons, children in the womb, have been relegated to the status of "chattel", personal property, who can be disposed of by those more powerful than they.

"Stewardship is planned giving and does not leave giving to chance. It challenges us to plan. It asks us to appraise – deliberately – what we are doing with our time, our talent and our treasure."

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS

Liturgy of the Word:
In the homily, the priest explains the readings and prayers of the day. This is not simply a historical explanation, but an explanation of how the readings show us that God is alive and active in our world today, just as God was when the Bible was written.

Father Michael G. Wiczak
Pflaum Publishing Group

COMPRENDER LA MISA

Liturgia de la palabra:
En la homilía, el sacerdote explica las lecturas y oraciones del día. Esto no es simplemente una explicación histórica, sino una explicación de cómo las lecturas nos muestran que Dios está vivo y activo en nuestro mundo de hoy, sólo Dios cuando la Biblia fue escrita.

Father Michael G. Wiczak

Sunday's Reflections
2 Corinthians 5:6-10

AWAY FROM HOME

Homesickness afflicts students away at school, workers on business trips and even families on vacation. It is exciting to travel, but going home is always the best part. Home is just that—a place we call our own, a place where we are most ourselves, a place of comfort, a center. It's pleasant to see something else, but after a while it's hard to be away.

Paul, the apostle, had ambivalent feelings about "home". He was a missionary, after all, so he spent a good part of his adult life traveling and taking up different residences thanks to the kindness of strangers. Paul thought more deeply about the meaning of "home". For him, it was not just a place, it was the very body we inhabit. "We are at home in the body."

Even so, Paul was not at home with that home. At home in the body meant "we are away from the Lord." And for Paul, that was the real home: being in the presence of God forever.

The homesickness we experience when we are away is a symptom of the "sickness" we feel throughout our lives. Something is always missing. Love doesn't work out exactly as we'd hoped. Our skills are never quite as good as we'd like. Even our prayer is often disappointing. What we are missing is what we will experience when we "all appear before the judgment seat of Christ"—a home with the Lord
