Help me to see the vocation to which you have called me, Whether it is to the single, married, consecrated, or ordained life. Give me the grace to be receptive to your will, The strength to respond to it in charity, And the determination to see it to its end.

"Being upfront and honest about one's sinful nature actually helps create a more authentic encounter with God. There are people who believe they are righteous, follow the catechism well enough and abide by the Christian faith, but they don't have the experience of having been saved."

by Kevin Cotter
August 26, 2014

- Everyone is meant to evangelize.
- Want authentic personal fulfillment? Evangelize
- Evangelization starts with our own relationship with Jesus
- We must witness the Faith with our lives.
- An evangelizer must be joyful.
- We must encounter people to Evangelize.
- We must know how to give an Initial Proclamation of Jesus
- Get out of our comfort zone.
- Evangelizers love people.
- Everyone needs to be evangelized.

So they said to him, "What can we do to accomplish the works of God?"

Sunday's Reflections
Ephesians 4:17, 20-24

BREAKING BAD HABITS

Old habits are hard to break, but we give it a try. Some people make New Year's resolutions. They seize the opportunity of a new calendar and decide to make a new beginning in their life.

Others use the season of Lent. On Ash Wednesday we acknowledge our faults, and we spend six weeks doing penance for them, in order to rise with Christ as new people on Easter Day.

Some people reach for help when the habits have become addictions. Through individual and group counseling they come to recognize their own limitations, and they take one day at a time to live a new life.

The sacrament of reconciliation helps too. We bring our sins to God and seek the grace of this sacrament to overcome our weakness and strengthen our resolve to follow Christ.

We are not alone. Everyone struggles to break bad habits. And they always have.

The Letter to the Ephesians addressed a group of Christian converts who formerly adhered to Gentile beliefs and habits. Becoming Christian, they should have left their former ways behind. But many of them didn't. The letter tells them, "You must no longer live as the Gentiles do. ... You should put away the old self of your former way of life, corrupted through deceitful desires."

When we turn to Christ we "put on a new self," and we can leave old habits behind.
