October 13, 2015

Dear Holy Trinity Catholic Parishioners,

Your life gives glory to God when you trust in faith that He will take care of you. Your good works also glorify God. In (James 2:17 NAB) "Faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead". One wise man said, "actions flow from nature".

Thanks for being so loyal and faithful each day of your life in every aspect of your life.

Glory to God for you! Really, I am astounded at your many years of faithful service. Much like the morning sunrise, you always appear in order to serve. It is obvious to me, that you have faith for the long journey. Well done!

I pray that God will bless you with His abundant blessings.

The love of Christ urges us forward,

Monsignor Bernard L. Gully

LIMEX

The Diocese of San Angelo is working with Loyola University New Orleans to begin Cycle 5 of the Loyola Institute for Ministry Extension (LIMEX). With this program we have the opportunity to offer a Catholic university graduate education program offering a Master's degree in Religious Education or a Master's degree in Pastoral Studies. This is a part-time program designed for the working adult. An undergraduate degree is needed.

To inform interested people about the LIMEX program and to answer questions and concerns, Information Sessions are scheduled as follows:

St. Ann Parish, Midland
October 19, 2015 (Monday)
7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Diocesan Pastoral Center
October 22, 2015 (Thursday)
7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

If you have any questions about the Information Sessions or the LIMEX Program, contact S. Hilda Marotta at 325-651-7500 or evangelizationcatechesis@sanangeliocese.org.

Pro-life Hotline... 1-800-395-HELP

October 18 Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn said: "In keeping silent about evil, in burying it so deep within us that no sign of it appears on the surface, we are implanting it, and it will rise up a thousand fold in the future." This certainly applies to abortion and euthanasia today.

Sunday's Reflections
Hebrews 4:14-16

HIGH PRIEST LIKE NONE OTHER

Priests are people, but a lot of people feel some distance from priests. Perhaps it's celibacy, the vestments, their residence—or that they usually serve a parish a few years and then leave. People respect priests, love them—but they usually don't get too close.

Apparently, it was also true in the Old Testament. The high priest of the temple offered sacrifice. He was one of the people, but regarded as someone different. He was privileged to enter the Holy of Holies, and trusted enough to speak for the people, and to catch the ear of God. Because of his distinguished life, the high priest did not always appreciate the difficulties of ordinary people.

When the Letter to the Hebrews describes Jesus as a high priest, it sets him apart from others. Like other priests, Jesus entered the Holy of Holies, but unlike them he actually entered heaven itself. Like other high priests, Jesus was human, but unlike them he was also God. And unlike some of them, he knew what it was to suffer. Hebrews says, "We do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has similarly been tested in every way, yet without sin."

Jesus is our priest. He is like us, yet unlike us. We are close to him, yet he is set apart. "So let us confidently approach the throne of grace to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help."
